La Fracture Coloniale:

Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France's treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy The Portrait and the Colonial Imaginary Simon Dell, 2020-02-26 French colonisers of the Third Republic claimed not to oppress but to liberate imagining they were spreading republican ideals to the colonies to make a Greater France In this book Simon Dell explores the various roles played by portraiture in this colonial imaginary Anyone interested in the history of colonial Africa will have encountered innumerable portraits of African elites produced during the first half of the twentieth century yet no book to date has focused on these ubiquitous images Dell analyses the production and dissemination of such portraits and situates them in a complex and conflicted field of representations Moving between European and African perspectives The Portrait and the Colonial Imaginary blends history with art history to provide insights into the larger processes that were transforming the French metropole and colonies during the early twentieth century This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content Contemporary French cinema Guy Austin, 2021-06-15 Contemporary French cinema is an essential introduction to popular French film of the last 35 years It charts recent developments in all genres of French cinema with analyses of over 120 movies from Les Valseuses to Caché Reflecting the diversity of French film production since the New Wave this clear and perceptive study includes chapters on the heritage film the thriller and the war movie alongside the cinéma du look representations of sexuality comedies the work of women film makers and le jeune cinéma Each chapter introduces the public reception and critical debates surrounding a given genre interwoven with detailed accounts of relevant films Confirmed as a major contribution to both Film Studies and French Studies this book is a fascinating volume for students and fans of French film alike Love Under the Skin Cécile Coquet-Mokoko, 2020-04-15 The rising visibility of interracial couples calls for increased attention to the overlapping of culture and race in safe spaces centered on small group dynamics or in public spaces where peoples of African descent are under the public gaze This comparative study seeks to de-center the U.S. centered viewpoint common to much of the literature on black-white relations Based on nine years of fieldwork in the American South and in France Coquet shows many unexpected parallels between the two societies Gendered perceptions of cultural authenticity and sexual ethics are a guiding thread being inseparable from the historical and political contingencies

re defining acceptable forms of dating marrying and parenting among cis heterosexual couples in both societies Her account emphasizes resilience and agency as couples seek to protect themselves and their children while their extended or symbolic kinship networks help white partners acknowledge the existence of racial privilege

Remnants of the Franco-Algerian Rupture Mona El Khoury, 2020-09-28 At the end of French colonization in Algeria four categories of people held French citizenship or had strong ties with France European settlers Jews mixed race individuals and Harkis The end of the War of Independence exiled most of them from Algeria traumatized them in various ways and transferred many to metropolitan France Remnants of the Franco Algerian Rupture Archiving Postcolonial Minorities examines the legacies of these transnational identities through narratives that dissent from official histories both in France and Algeria This literature takes particular stories of exile and loss and constructs a memory around a Mosaic father figure embodying the native land Algeria Mona El Khoury argues that these filiation narratives create a postcolonial archive a discursive foundation that makes historical minorities visible while disrupting French and Algerian hegemonies El Khoury questions the power of literature to repair history while contending that these literary strategies seek to do justice to the dead Algerian father even as they valorize enduring minority identifications

Negotiations of Migration Annimari Juvonen, Verena Lindemann Lino, 2021-08-23 At a time when migration is mostly discussed in terms of conflict and crisis it is decidedly important to acknowledge the discursive traditions narrative patterns and conceptual categories that continue to inform how migration is represented analyzed and theorized in contemporary Europe This volume focuses on the potential of artistic and critical practices to challenge hegemonic framings of migration and embrace the ambivalence inherent in migration as a conflictual often violent yet also liberating uprooting By placing special emphasis on peripheral perspectives and subject positions the volume provides new insights into topics such as belonging and exclusion the migrant crisis and memory By bringing into dialogue creative practices and academic discourses it explores how new modes of seeing and theorizing may emerge through experiences and representations of migration Situated within the field of literary and cultural studies it complements historical and social analyses in the emerging interdisciplinary field of migration studies

The Diaspora of the Comoros in France Katharina Fritsch, 2022-07-15 Based on an ethnographic study of mobilisations of the Comorian diaspora in Marseille during political and cultural events the book examines communitarisation in relation to three thematic areas namely spaces cultural markets and local politics Drawing on Foucault's concept of the dispositif the author analyses mobilisations of postcolonial diaspora as part of a dispositif of communitarisation that is a set of discourses practices institutions and subjectivations of diasporic community She argues that constructions of community are both shaped by and shape ethnicised biopolitics expressed by modes of governing diasporic groups along ethnicised divisions and a marking of ethnicised communities as the Other of the French Republic The performativity of a Comorian community brought into being through political cultural economic and customary practices also shows how Comorian communities govern themselves along
