

Mini-DBQ: Catholic Counter-Reformation

CONTEXT: In response to widespread Church corruption, German monk and theologian Martin Luther posted his famous "Ninety-Five Theses" to the castle church door in Wittenberg, Germany. This event touched off the Protestant Reformation, which split Christianity in Western Europe. By the mid-1500s, England, Scotland, Scandinavia, Northern Germany, the Netherlands, and parts of France and Switzerland had converted to some form of Protestantism. This new form of Christianity rejected the authority of the pope in Rome and also protested against several key aspects of Catholic faith and practice like the continued use of Latin in Church services and texts, celibate priests, and the belief in transubstantiation (bread and wine becoming the Body and Blood of Christ). By the 1540s, the Church began to formulate a response to Protestantism that has come to be known as the Counter-Reformation.

TASK: Analyze each document and use the documents to write a 1-2 paragraph response addressing the prompt below:

How did the Catholic Church respond to the challenge of Protestantism?

Document 1

SOURCE: Excerpt from "The Counter Reformation" article supplementing The Medici: Godfathers of the Renaissance, a documentary series produced by PBS, 2002 (adapted)

In 1545, the leaders of the Catholic Church gathered in the Northern Italian city of Trent for an emergency conference. Their aim was to reclaim the moral high ground, and the superiority of the Holy Mother Church, in the wake of the Protestant challenge. The stakes were high. They were playing for the survival of the Roman Catholic Church.

After 20 years of debate, the Council of Trent established the basis for a Catholic counter-attack. Decrees (laws) were issued addressing every aspect of Church authority, from the holding of multiple church offices, to the chastity of priests, and reforming the practices and rules for monks...

The Index of Prohibited Books was published, naming and banning 503 heretical (religiously "incorrect") texts, including most translations of the Bible and the works of Erasmus (a Renaissance humanist). Calvin and Luther's New churches were constructed, with space for thousands of worshippers, and academies designed, for the first time, for vernacular (language of everyday use) sermons. The Church used the weapon of reform to entice (attract) back its disillusioned

Quick Assessment: Based on this source, how did the Catholic Church respond to Protestantism?

_____ Challenged its Hierarchy _____ Reformed Beliefs or Practices _____ Propaganda
 _____ Attempts at Colonization _____ Upheld Traditional Beliefs and Practices

Analytic Question

Based on this secondary source, describe ONE way the Roman Catholic Church responded to the spread of Protestantism.
