

Miradas

An abstract painting of a face, split vertically. The left side is primarily blue and green, while the right side is dominated by a bright magenta or pink. The face is composed of various brushstrokes, some thick and impasto, others thin and delicate. The background is a mix of earthy tones like brown, tan, and grey, with scattered splatters of blue, yellow, and pink. The overall effect is one of depth and complexity, with the face appearing to emerge from a textured, almost collage-like surface.
