Louis M. Maraj

Fake News Getting Creative With Constituents English Edition:

Post-Truth Rhetoric and Composition Bruce McComiskey, 2017-11-01 Post Truth Rhetoric and Composition is a timely exploration of the increasingly widespread and disturbing effect of post truth on public discourse in the United States Bruce McComiskey analyzes the instances of bullshit fake news feigned ethos hyperbole and other forms of post truth rhetoric employed in recent political discourse The book frames post truth within rhetorical theory referring to the classic triad of logos ethos and pathos McComiskey shows that it is the loss of grounding in logos that exposes us to the dangers of post truth As logos is the realm of fact logic truth and valid reasoning Western society faces increased risks including violence unchecked libel and tainted elections when the value of reason is diminished and audiences allow themselves to be swayed by pathos and ethos Evaluations of truth are deferred or avoided and mendacity convincingly masquerades as a valid form of argument In a post truth world where neither truth nor falsehood has reliable meaning language becomes purely strategic without reference to anything other than itself This scenario has serious consequences not only for our public discourse but also for the study of composition

Black or Right Louis M. Maraj, 2020-12-01 Black or Right Anti Racist Campus Rhetorics explores notions of Blackness in white institutional particularly educational spaces In it Louis M Maraj theorizes how Black identity operates with against ideas of difference in the age of BlackLivesMatter Centering Blackness in frameworks for antiracist agency through interdisciplinary Black feminist lenses Black or Right asks how those racially signifying diversity in US higher education and beyond make meaning in the everyday Offering four Black rhetorics as antiracist means for rhetorical reclamation autoethnography hashtagging inter con textual reading and reconceptualized disruption the book uses Black feminist relationality via an African indigenous approach Maraj examines fluid quotidian ways Black folk engage anti racism at historically white institutions in the United States in response to violent campus spaces educational structures protest movements and policy practice Black or Right s experimental creative style strives to undiscipline knowledge from academic confinement Exercising different vantage points in each chapter autoethnographer digital media scholar pedagogue cultural rhetorician and critical discourse analyst Maraj challenges readers to ecologically understand shifting multiple meanings of Blackness in knowledge making Black or Right s expressive form organization narratives and poetics intimately interweave with its argument that Black folk must continuously invent otherwise in reiterative escape from oppressive white spaces In centering Black experiences Black theory and diasporic Blackness Black or Right mobilizes generative approaches to destabilizing institutional whiteness as opposed to reparative attempts to fix racism which often paradoxically center whiteness It will be of interest to both academic and general readers and significant for specialists in cultural rhetorics Black studies and critical theory

Online Virality Valérie Schafer, Fred Pailler, 2024-08-19 The book Online Virality edited by Valérie Schafer and Fred Pailler, C2DH University of Luxembourg aims to provide a comprehensive examination of online virality. It explores the many ways we can think about this modern phenomenon and analyse the circulation, reception and evolution of viral born digital content. Virality and content sharing always intertwine material, infrastructural, visual and discursive elements. This involves various platforms, stakeholders, intermediaries, social groups and communities that are constantly re-defining themselves. Regulation, curation and content moderation politics as well as affects and emotions, fears, humour, empathy, hatred are also at the core of online virality. The publication offers an interdisciplinary overview on online virality by including different types of scientific inputs such as precise case studies, various methodological approaches including close and distant reading, visual studies, discourse analysis etc as well as historical and socio-technical analyses. The book is organised around three main topics: Expressions and Genres, Mobilisations and Engagements, Circulation and Infrastructures. The first part explores the semiotics of virality, the diverse and creative forms of expression, specific genres, the relation to other media and the affective side of virality such as using humour or provocation. The second part focuses on the political dimension of memes and viral content and their use in the context of controversy or political and ideological opposition. Finally, the third part delves into the often understudied but essential side of virality by examining the role of platforms and their curation in short, the infrastructural dimension of virality. These three parts allow us to question such fundamental notions linked to virality as among others: circulation, reception, economy of attention, instrumentalisation and affect. This volume brings together authors from various disciplines including semiotics, history, information and communication sciences, computer science, digital humanities, media studies. In addition, the contributors approach the question via case studies that allow for a perspective that is not exclusively US and European centred. Some chapters explore virality in Brazil, Chile while the book also examines a wide variety of platforms: YouTube, Twitter, Instagram, TikTok, video game platforms etc.
