First Times Victoria:

On the Street where You Live: Victoria's early roads and railways Danda Humphreys, 2000 In the mid 1800s Victoria grew from a fur trading post into a provincial capital the jewel in British Columbia's golden crown Meanwhile many of the early residents happy to leave the Hudson's Bay Company behind followed simple trails from the fort or discovered new routes of their own In her first book Danda Humphreys introduced readers to some of the people who forged those pioneer pathways Now she takes us another step back in time to the roads and railways that connected the original city's core to today's suburbs From Saanich to Sooke street names tell stories of intrigue and adventure Rowland Avenue named for the farm labourer with a sinister sideline hangman for the HBC Joan Crescent where coal baron Robert Dunsmuir's widow once resided in solitary splendour in a castle called Craigdarroch Sidney Avenue close to where the Brethour brothers donated land for the northern terminus of the Cordwood Express first train to link the city with the Saanich Peninsula and the islands in the Strait of Georgia In this second book in her On the Street Where You Live trilogy Danda once again combines her passion for the past with a penchant for lively prose to bring you stories about Victoria's pioneers You know the streets now meet the people their lives their loves and the legends they left behind EARLY TIMES Earle Wilson, 2009-05-26 Australia Edwin Carton Booth, 2023-10-01 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 101 Amazing Facts about Queen Victoria Jack Goldstein, 2014-06-25 Did you know that Queen Victoria could speak five different languages Or that her closest childhood friend was a King Charles spaniel by the name of Dash What did she ask staff to do instead of knocking on her door And how did she deliberately annoy Prime Minister William Gladstone All of these facts and more can be found in this fantastic guide to the long reigning monarch and Empress of India This book is perfect for those studying Queen Victoria at school or even for those who are just interested in learning more about one of history's most fascinating figures The Standard Cyclopedia of Horticulture Liberty Hyde Bailey, 1919 Australia Edwin Carton Booth, 1873 Scottish Education, School And University, From Early Times To 1908, With An Addendum 1908-1913 John Kerr, 2016-04-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Confessions

from the Closet serendipity,2022-04-19 Life is great when we are children free to discover all we can do When she was growing up Serendipity learned that she had a secret elderly friend and could see stories in her mind But when she excitedly told people about her discoveries life began to change as she was punished and shunned for speaking her truth In a candid narrative Serendipity invites others along on her journey through life as she reveals secrets she has harbored for decades While providing insight into how she first discovered her psychic abilities as a child growing up in the sixties and then why she thought she could quietly keep her special gift hidden Serendipity also asks introspective questions directed at those on the outside looking in As she shares the haunting details of what it was like to be called a devil child and then forced to live a life between two worlds Serendipity shines a light on what it means to be psychic as she endured unthinkable tragedies and challenges and ultimately stepped into being one with spirit Confessions from the Closet is the story of a psychic s secrets as she bravely lived between two worlds overcame adversity and learned to embrace her gift Capitals, Aristocrats, and

Cougars Alan Livingstone MacLeod,2021-10-05 A fascinating and in depth look at Victoria s largely unknown professional hockey players in the early twentieth century and the historical context in which they played For most hockey fans hailing from Canada s westernmost province the sport s most coveted prize the Stanley Cup has remained frustratingly elusive for nearly a century But what many people do not know is that the west coast and in particular the city of Victoria was once a hockey mecca where superstars flourished Hall of Famers were made and big victories yes even the Stanley Cup of 1925 were won Capitals Aristocrats and Cougars is a deep dive into the world of professional hockey in Victoria from 1911 to 1925 an era that saw forty nine men take their turns in one of the city s newly minted teams It was also an era of unprecedented social economic and political change a period that spanned the First World War and redefined Canada s national identity With meticulous research and encyclopedic knowledge author historian and consummate hockey fan Alan Livingstone MacLeod chronicles the key players coaches arena builders and team visionaries who contributed to this long forgotten chapter of hockey history and puts them all in the context of what was going on in the world at the time This in depth account is sure to delight history buffs and hockey fans alike Cyclopedia of American Horticulture: R-Z Liberty Hyde
