Five Ways Similarities And The Difference Between Nfsas:

Quality and Inclusion in Education N.V. Varghese, Anjana Mangalagiri, A. Mathew, 2023-05-12 This book calls for an equitable and qualitative access to education for all. It proposes paradigms of educational governance that are based on coalition building between key stakeholders are grounded in local and cultural contexts sensitive to the language needs of communities. It underlines the significance of gender sensitive and inclusive approaches that ensure equity for marginalized children and minorities. Based on research based studies the volume focuses on equity quality and learning covering a broad spectrum from school to higher to adult education. It discusses the multiple learner deprivations amongst the marginalized communities and the severe impact of events such as pandemics that exacerbate learner inequities and the recent developments in India under the National Education Policy 2020. It also presents research based country experiences in the Asian India Bangladesh China and African Ghana South Africa contexts showing how external influences on the changing priorities in policy perspectives cut across developing countries. Compiled in honour of Professor R Govinda this volume of insightful articles will be of interest to students and researchers of educational policy and studies sociology of education equity and human rights. It will also be useful for decision makers and think tanks. Open Learning as a Means of Advancing Social Justice Tabisa Mayisela, Shanali Govender, 2024-01-23 This volume investigates the uptake of open learning in South African Technical Vocational Education and Training TVET colleges and higher education institutions. Comprised of 16 studies focused on activities at a range of colleges and universities across the country these chapters aim to promote a better understanding of open learning practices across the Post School Education and Training PSET sector including issues such as recognition of prior learning access for students with disabilities work integrated learning professional development novel student funding mechanisms leadership for open educational practices institutional culture student support blended and online learning flexible learning online assessment open educational resource development models and funding and micro credentials. This collection of peer reviewed chapters contributes to understanding the ways in which South African PSET institutions and educators are interpreting open learning as a means of advancing social justice. It includes a historical and contemporary understanding of the economic cultural and political obstacles facing PSET drawing on Nancy Fraser's theory of social justice as participatory parity to better understand the ways in which open learning may address systemic social injustices in order to allow South African students and educators to thrive. This volume emerges from research conducted by the Cases on Open Learning COOL project an initiative by the Department of Higher Education and Training in partnership with the Centre for Innovation in Learning and Teaching CILT at the University of Cape Town UCT in South Africa. Responsibility of Higher Education Systems, 2020-06-29 The evolving societal political and economic landscape has led to increased demands on higher education institutions to make their contribution and benefits to society more visible and in many cases with fewer public resources. This book contributes to the understanding of the responsibilities of Higher Education and the challenges posed to the production and circulation of knowledge It raises questions about the role of higher education in society its responsibility towards students and staff and regarding its intended impact The book brings together a range of topical papers and a diversity of perspectives scientific investigations of reputed scholars critical evidence based papers of third space professionals and policymakers perspectives on the daily practice and management of higher education institutions and systems The variety of both content and contributors elevates the richness of the book and its relevance for a large audience Contributors are Victor M H Borden Lex Borghans Bruno Broucker Hamish Coates Gwilym Croucher Lisa Davidson Mark Engberg Philipp Friedrich Martina Gaisch Solomon Gebreyohans Gebru Ton Kallenberg Kathi A Ketcheson Lu Liu Alfredo Marra Clare Milsom Kenneth Moore Roberto Moscati Marjolein Muskens Daniela N meyer Attila Pausits Svetlana Shenderova Wafa Singh Chuanyi Wang Denyse Webbstock Gregory Wolniak and Jiale Yang See inside the book

Handbook of the Economics of Education Eric A. Hanushek, F. Welch, 2006-11-29 Vol 4 edited by Eric A Hanushek Stephen Machin Ludger Woessmann What is the value of an education Volume 4 combines recent data with new methodologies to examine this and related questions from diverse perspectives School choice and school competition educator incentives the college premium and other considerations help make sense of the investments and returns associated with education

Higher Education and the COVID-19 Pandemic , 2022-06-13 COVID 19 caused massive disruptions in the higher education sector across the world The transition to online learning exposed the deep rooted inequalities between countries systems institutions and student groups in terms of the availability of information technology infrastructure internet access and digital literacy as well as prior training and experiences of faculty in online education This volume explores various aspects of the impact of the pandemic on higher education management including how university administration responded to the crisis and the role of local and national government agencies in academic support and higher education delivery The key findings highlight the importance of better organisation and preparedness of higher education systems for future crises and the need for a better dialogue between governments higher education institutions and other stakeholders The book calls for a collective response to address the digital divide among various groups and financial inequalities within and between the private and public universities and to plan for the serious challenges that international students face during crisis situations

Understanding Experiences of First Generation University Students Amani Bell, Lorri J. Santamaría, 2018-02-22 Over the past few decades universities have opened their doors to students whose parents and grandparents were historically excluded from societal participation and higher education for reasons associated with racial ethnic socio economic and or linguistic diversity Many of these students are first generation or first in their family to attend university While some progress has been made in responding to the needs of these internationally underserved learners many challenges remain This edited book features the unique and diverse experiences of first generation students as they transition into and engage with higher education whilst exploring ways in which universities might better serve these students With reference to culturally responsive and sustaining research methodologies undertaken in Australia Canada New Zealand South Africa the UK and the USA the contributors critically examine how these students demonstrate resilience within university and ways in which success and challenges are articulated Elements that are unique to context and shared across the international higher education milieu are explored The book is replete with diverse student voices and compelling implications for practice and future research The studies featured are centred on underlying theories of identity and intersectionality while valuing student voices and experiences Throughout the emphasis is on using strengths based indigenous and decolonised methodologies Through these culturally sustaining approaches which include critical incident technique participatory learning and action talanoa and narrative inquiry the book explores rich data on first generation student experiences at seven institutions in six countries across four continents Higher Education, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Perils and Promises The State of Online Education Goals and Challenges of Online Learning and Innovations in the Age of COVID It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic The Youth Dividend Jan H. Hofmeyr, 2012 The Global South and comparative and international education Charl C. Wolhuter, 2023-04-30 This book proposes and unpacks the construct Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the scholarly field of Comparative and International Education as bringing together a number of related strands in the field and as showing a promising future trajectory for the evolution of the field namely the affirmation of the Global South This construct captures a significant amount of what leading scholars in the field of Comparative and International Education are currently engaged with It also expresses a view of both the current epoch of education as well as of the societal contextual imperatives shaping education Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the field comes to the fore in a number of related strands in the current discourse in the field This scholarly book originates from the Research Unit of Human Rights Education in Diversity at North West University South Africa where the author is affiliated The book is grounded in the Creed for Human Rights From this perspective the book advocates for a new phase in the historical development of the field with a focus on advancing the affirmation of the Global South as a central moral foundation The author envisions that this shift will represent a significant advancement in Comparative and International Education propelling it to an unprecedented stage of value and importance

Reimagining South African Higher Education Danie de Klerk, Greig Krull, Tshepiso Maleswena, Fiona MacAlister, 2024-06-23 Reimagining South African Higher Education Towards a Student Centred Learning and Teaching Future provides progressive approaches and innovations that challenge readers to rethink student learning engagement support and teaching The book offers examples of evidence informed and scholarly approaches to centring students through enhanced learning and teaching practices that are relevant to the South African context and those Global South contexts similar to South Africa
