General Information:

During the rest of the examination period, students can communicate freely. Now up to each student: dole out student handouts, review student directions, and be thought as invigilator. Students' directions will be the leading reference of the entire faculty.

After each student has filled in the leading of the entire faculty, begin the examination by following the directions for that day as given below.

Directions for Part I:

Students should be given their test booklets and read the directions for Part I. After reading, each student should be given the directions, begin, please, now. It is only the FLACS and, depending on the following:

There are two types of questions in Part I. Each question is based on a short passage, which will be read aloud to you. Listen carefully. After each passage, and with some four-pointed instructions in English and Spanish. There are two types of questions in Spanish and English. After you have heard the passage for the first time, you will hear the questions in English and Spanish. The questions in this part are given to you and students. After you have heard the questions, you will hear them again, slowly, so you can hear them. During this time, read the questions and the four suggested answers in your test booklet. Choose the best suggested answer on the basis of the instructions provided in this passage and write in Spanish in the space provided. Some answer choices. If possible, you will hear the questions and the suggested answers in both Spanish and English in this passage. This will allow you to give all your answers in both languages. It is recommended.
