Unintended Consequences Noel Primrose, 2018-03-19 Colin MacKinnon, leader of the opposition who is nearing the end of a general election campaign that hangs in the balance, gets an unexpected telephone call which changes his destiny. The caller knows of a dreadful incident from his past. But it isn't blackmail, and the call sets MacKinnon's career alight. His rise in the world of politics is meteoric, and nothing gets in his way, even his own family can be sacrificed. He draws two old army colleagues into his circle and sets out to restore the United Kingdom's standing on the world stage. His climb to the top is relentless. Where is it all going to end, and who is really pulling the strings?

The World Bill Gaston, 2012-09-25 Weaving together five heartbreaking stories, Bill Gaston transforms the cruelty of life into something not only beautiful but heartwarming. A recently divorced early retiree accidentally burns down his house on the day he pays off the mortgage, only to discover that for the first time in his life, he's forgotten to pay a bill: his insurance premium. An old friend of his, a middle-aged musician, prepares for her suicide to end the pain of esophageal cancer. Her father, who left his family to study Buddhism in Tibet, ends his days in a Toronto facility for Alzheimer's patients. The three are tied together not only by their bonds of affection but by a book called The World, written by the old man in his youth. The book, possibly biographical, tells the story of a historian who unearths a cache of letters written in Chinese in an abandoned leper colony off the coast of Victoria. He and the young Chinese translator fall in love, only to betray each other in the cruellest way possible, each violating what the other reveres most.
