Openness and Evidence: The Oscar Pistorius Crossroad Dr Sonja Els, 2024-11-15 Weighing the constitutional rights of freedom of expression of the media and fair trial rights of the criminal accused known as the fair trial free press conundrum is a global challenge The development of technology such as live streaming of criminal trials through television and real time reporting through social media challenges the traditional views of open justice especially regarding evidence and the credibility thereof The legal maxim of Justice must be seen to be done lies at the heart of this book that focuses on openness and evidence in the South African criminal process The principle of open justice a Constitutional requirement is examined in relation to truth finding in the adversarial system of evidence New media challenge the procedural legitimacy of evidence As a rule of practice to prevent witness contamination witnesses in a criminal trial remain outside the courtroom while the other witnesses testify This book explores the impact of live broadcasting and streaming of criminal trials on the credibility of witnesses who might have been exposed to evidence before testifying The book also evaluates the applicability of the sub judice rule against the requirement of openness Furthermore the conflicting constitutional rights being the right to a fair trial and the right to freedom of expression are interrogated in the quest to new media broadcasting The book features a legal comparison between the jurisprudence of South Africa the United States of America and Britain in the domain of new media court reporting In conclusion principles of therapeutic jurisprudence are considered as live broadcasting of criminal trials may provide therapeutic outcomes for the victim the accused and the broader society This book serves as an indispensable resource for those navigating the intersection between the use of new media in court reporting and the constitutional imperatives being open justice and fundamental rights Scholars in the fields of Law of Criminal Procedure Media Law and Constitutional Law will gain fresh insights into these topical issues Suid-Afrikaanse Hofverslae ,2015 Glimpses into Primary School Teacher Education in South Africa Sarah Gravett,Elizabeth Henning,2020-11-05 This book explores the current landscape of Initial Teacher Education ITE in primary schools in South Africa Considering recent policy directives and initiatives it highlights the dilemmas of ITE for the primary school and gives a thorough account of innovations and initiatives to improve ITE The book presents what works best for quality preparation of teachers in the Global South where many children rely on their teachers and school life to break the cycle of poverty Chapters draw on evidence from workplace learning pre service study and primary school teacher education policy to highlight examples of promising change in teacher education in South Africa addressing the clichés of theory versus practice head on This book successfully brings out the challenging aspects of teacher education for childhood learning which has otherwise been regarded as the softer option for a career in education This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of teacher education African education educational policy international education and comparative education Science Education in Countries Along the Belt & Road Ronghuai Huang,Bing Xin,Ahmed Tlili,Feng Yang,Xiangling Zhang,Lixin Zhu,Mohamed Jemni,2022-01-18 This book aims to highlight science education in countries along the Belt and Road It consists of 30 chapters divided into three main parts namely Arab and African countries Asian countries and European countries We invited science education experts from 29 Belt and Road countries to introduce the current status of science education in their countries and the new requirements with the rapid evolution of Information Technology The major contributions of this book include 1 Provide the current status of science education in countries along the Belt and Road as well as the requirement for developing and improving science education in these countries 2 Discuss new insights of science education in future years 3 Inspire stakeholders to take effective initiatives to develop science education in countries along the Belt and Road Towards more effective collaboration by higher education institutions for greater regional development in the Gauteng City-Region Robert Bergman,2014-11-19 Higher education institutions HEIs in the Gauteng City Region GCR and elsewhere are increasingly being called upon to do more than their traditional roles of teaching and research They are now expected to collaborate and engage with other stakeholders with a view to contributing directly and indirectly to social and economic development in their localities Such an orientation includes having HEIs actively fostering public private partnerships and other initiatives that enhance equitable regional development The adoption of such a focus has implications for all aspects of these institutions activities as well as for the policy and regulatory framework in which they operate This Occasional Paper reflects critically on the role of HEIs in regional development It surveys current debates on the matter and draws out some of the implications on how we ought to think further about the current state of government industryacademia interaction and collaboration for development in the GCR It is motivated by an awareness of the increasing importance of higher education in the regional development discourse alongside a body of international theory and practice on the contribution of HEIs to regional development A cornerstone of this body of literature is the so called triple helix framework within which government industry and academia work intimately intensely and collaboratively towards a common vision of regional development Within this framework HEIs are considered to be a public good that must play a large meaningful and relevant role in the development and improvement of the cities and regions where they are located 1 2 They do not and cannot stand completely outside the realities of their geographic social cultural and political environment The intended audience for this report extends beyond academics and HEI administrators to include government officials business and labour leaders civil society and citizens because a discussion on stimulating and improving the GCR must be much more than an academic exercise The collaboration that is essential to regional development requires stakeholders to be familiar with a wide spectrum of issues of importance to individual constituencies Each constituency must add value and insight to the discussion by drawing on their specific knowledge experience and self interests Establishing this common ground is fundamental to initiating meaningful debate about what the GCR can and should be and how regional HEIs can work more collaboratively creatively and effectively to improve and advance the region

#MeToo and Beyond M. Cristina Alcalde, Paula-Irene Villa, 2022-07-26 NiUnaMenos Aufschrei LoSHA Before MeToo became a massive global movement these were the hashtags that represented activists from Ukraine to Peru who demanded accountability for the sexual violence and racism xenophobia and misogyny inflicted on women transgender people and girls Led by activists such as Tarana Burke who popularized the phrase me too these movements provided a call to action for survivors across the world to speak out about their experiences In MeToo and Beyond M Cristina Alcalde and Paula Irene Villa bring together scholars and activists from various backgrounds to approach MeToo from multiple spaces positionalities and areas of expertise many from regions and contexts often overlooked and understudied in the mediascapes of the global North This volume includes perspectives from around the world and touches on diverse topics spanning masculinity studies transgender people s heightened risk of suffering sexual harassment and violence the internal conflict in American Jewish communities as activists began speaking out against prominent members who relied on shared cultural values to shame their victims as well as many other significant aspects of the first all inclusive international effort to end gender based violence The editors and contributors heed Burke s call to amplify marginalized voices so that instead of becoming footnotes these voices guide activists to frame polyphony as central to understanding past current and future forms of gender based violence and resistance The goal of MeToo and Beyond is to examine both profoundly universal and specific experiences of sexual violence as well as the collective effort to stop gender based violence wherever it occurs Activists and scholars will find this book an important and necessary contribution to current and future discussions on sexual violence and global movements
