Gaza Narrates Poetry:

Gaza Narrates Poetry Ahmed Miqdad, 2014-10-22 I wrote my poems through the latest war on Gaza which started in July 2014 and lasted for fifty one days I wrote them under the shelling and attacks of the Israeli planes and tanks under the hovering of the drones and the sounds of rockets and heavy bombs between the homeless civilians and between my little children I wrote these poems with the lack of power and food and with fear and stress These poems were written from my heart to the heart of my reader

Classics Transformed in Jewish, Israeli, and Palestinian Receptions, 2025-02-19 Classics Transformed in Jewish Israeli and Palestinian Receptions invites the reader to view classical antiquity through the writings of poets translators and scholars emerging from modern Jewish diasporas Mandatory Palestine and the State of Israel who engaged with Greek and Roman literary precedents Whereas these voices have up to now been mostly studied independently of one another as separate fields of research this volume brings some of these distinct voices who nevertheless share a connection to Greco Roman antiquity into conversation with one another Taking its cue from the crisis of humanism following the Holocaust the chapters take as their themes the destruction of home displacement and different forms of wandering and homecomings drawing connections to acts of translation and transmission of the classics to form a picture of cultural and textual states of alterity The volume shows that Jewish Israeli and Palestinian responses to the classics are entangled and even complementary despite their different trajectories The chapters included here focus particularly on critical moments in Jewish and Palestinian existence when the reception of classical humanism is closely linked to issues of survival On offer here is a historically grounded investigation into the ways Jews Israelis and Palestinians have used classical antiquity and classical philology to validate their identity in a rapidly changing society

Words Like Daggers: The Political Poetry of the Negev Bedouin Kobi Peled, 2022-06-08 The book explores the political poetry recited by the Negev Bedouin from the late Ottoman period to the late twentieth century By closely reading fifty poems Peled sheds light on the poets sentiments and worldviews To get to the bottom of the issues that inspired their poetry he weaves an interpretive web informed by the study of language culture and history The poems reveal that the poets were perfectly aware of the workings of the power systems that took control of their lives and lifestyle Their poetry indicates that they did not remain silent but practiced their art in the face of their hardships observing the collapse of their world with a mixture of despair and inspiration bitterness and wit
