W. D. K. Gandah,2004 As was the case with many from the region Chief Gandaa I the father of S W D K Kum Gandah owed his chiefship to the colonial administration When the political system changed in the 1950s the people who had received formal schooling from the colonials were able to profit and most of the early members of parliament from northern Ghana were the sons of chiefs Kum Gandah exemplifies this experience His autobiography The Silent Rebel provides an insider account of early schools in northern Ghana and the first generation of African professionals which they produced It further relates experiences of the first generation of northern politicians the early elections and the formation of the Northern Peoples Party The author s story involves the stories of his contemporaries who included the first minister from the north the first leader of the opposition S D Dombo and the first and only president of northern origins Hilla Limann Jack Goody who edited the book provides an introduction The work contains reproductions of original photographs taken in northern Ghana in the 1950s
