The Roots of Educational Inequality Erika M. Kitzmiller, 2021-12-03 Through a fresh longitudinal analysis that investigates daily events rather than focusing solely on key turning points this study challenges conventional declension narratives that suggest that American high schools have moved steadily from pillars of success to institutions of failures Instead this work demonstrates that educational inequality has been embedded in our nation's urban high schools since their founding This book argues that public schools have never been funded adequately and instead that so called success of public schools is often tied to an influx of private funding and resources from families and communities that subsidizes inadequate public aid

Edu.net Stephen J. Ball, Carolina Junemann, Diego Santori, 2017-04-07 Edu.net builds upon and extends a series of research studies of education policy networks and global policy mobilities It draws on comprehensive data resulting from a Leverhulme Trust research study focused on Africa and a study funded by the British Academy focused on India which explored the way in which global actors and organisations bring policy ideas to bear and are joined up in a global education policy network This timely and cutting edge new work develops concepts analyses and methods deployed in Education Plc 2008 Networks New Governance and Education 2012 and Global Education Inc 2012 The research is framed by an elaboration of Network Ethnography an innovative method of policy research Edu.net presents the substantive findings of the authors research by focusing on various kinds of policy movement people ideas practices methods money The book is about both global education policy and ways of researching policy in a global setting It is an essential read for policy analysts educational academic researchers and postgraduate education students alike

Till Death Do Us Part Allan Amanik, Kami Fletcher, 2020-03-18 Contributions by Allan Amanik Kelly B Arehart Sue Fawn Chung Kami Fletcher Rosina Hassoun James S Pula Jeffrey E Smith and Martina Will de Chaparro Till Death Do Us Part American Ethnic Cemeteries as Borders Uncrossed explores the tendency among most Americans to separate their dead along communal lines rooted in race faith ethnicity or social standing and asks what a deeper exploration of that phenomenon can tell us about American history more broadly Comparative in scope and regionally diverse chapters look to immigrants communities of color the colonized the enslaved rich and poor and religious minorities as they buried kith and kin in locales spanning the Northeast to the Spanish American Southwest Whether African Americans Muslim or Christian Arabs Indians mestizos Chinese Jews Poles Catholics Protestants or various whites of European descent one thing that united these Americans was a drive to keep their dead apart At times they did so for internal preference At others it was a function of external prejudice Invisible and institutional borders built around and into ethnic cemeteries also tell a powerful story of the ways in which Americans have negotiated race culture class national origin and religious difference in the United States during its formative centuries

Higher Education Student Financial Aid Kazi Abdur Rouf, 2020-03-25 The research finds the majority of the higher education student financial aid programs are managed by the states or private agencies or foundations in the world Their financial aid policies are continuously changing and improving to adopt contemporary situations and changing time Likewise the GB higher education student loan policy improvement can be done by continuously reviewing the system which is necessary for GB to strengthen its higher education student loan program in Bangladesh
