

Franco Ferrarotti

HISTOIRE
ET HISTOIRES DE VIE

« Le présent ouvrage est un instrument mis à la disposition des chercheurs de langue française, unique dans sa conception et donc d'incontestable utilité. C'est son apport méthodologique qui requiert l'attention principale. Il donne une arête théorique à une méthode – celle des biographies – qui se situe désormais dans un champ épistémologique en complet bouleversement. Il considère la relation de l'histoire aux multiples histoires individuelles. Il souligne deux aspects : le caractère synthétique du récit de vie (opposé aux résultats de la sociologie analytique) et la possibilité de "lire une société à travers une biographie". Franco Ferrarotti montre bien que la méthode n'est pas platement celle de l'illustration, moyen de "vérifier un modèle interprétatif"; elle relève de l'ordre de la recherche-participation. Ce en quoi l'ouvrage contribue aussi à la définition d'une sociologie conduite avec les acteurs sociaux, et donc réductrice de la distance bureaucratique. »

Ces lignes, extraites de la préface de Georges Balandier, qui figuraient en quatrième de couverture de l'édition de 1983, conservent leur pertinence et leur validité pour la présente réédition.

Franco Ferrarotti est professeur émérite de l'Université La Sapienza (Rome), où, en 1960, il créa la première chaire de sociologie en Italie. Il mena ensuite à la fois une brillante carrière universitaire, dans différents pays, marquée par des publications remarquables, et une carrière diplomatique et politique. Son dernier ouvrage paru en français est Les mœurs d'Épouse (2009).

Recomposition instantanée du paysage éditorial français, disparition de « petits » éditeurs, adoption par des « grands » de ce qu'affirme l'économiste Renaud H. Coeur : « Je ne pense pas que la distinction entre le marché des produits et le marché des idées soit valide ». ... ? Il ne faut pas perdre les talents : un certain nombre d'auteurs disparaissent du paysage des livres disponibles, alors même qu'ils sont toujours pertinents et qu'une édition – ou une réédition – s'impose.

La collection DRÉSDEN 7094 propose de remettre à nos lecteurs disponibles des « introuvables ».
