New Class Society Robert Perrucci, Earl Wysong, 2008 This book explores how class based resources and interests embedded in large organizations are linked to powerful structures and processes which in turn are rapidly polarizing the U S into a highly unequal double diamond class structure The authors show how and why American class membership in the 21st century is based on an organizationally based distribution of critical resources including income investment capital credentialed skills verified by elite schools and social connections to organizational leaders

The Palimpsest Constitution Melissa Crouch, 2025-09-29 Since the mid 20th century many postcolonial states have engaged in multiple constitution making exercises with the turnover in written constitutions often due to coups or internal conflict Conversely people have resisted authoritarian rule through alternative constitution making The reality that most countries have had numerous official and unofficial constitutional texts begs the question How do past constitutions matter in the present This volume explores the social life of constitutional legacies or how past constitutions matter Using the case of Myanmar Professor Crouch demonstrates that constitutions are a palimpsest of past texts ideas and practices an accumulation of contested legacies Through constitutional ethnography it traces Burma Myanmar's modern constitutional history from the late colonial era through its postcolonial socialist and military regimes The

Palimpsest Constitution captures the idea that contemporary debates about constitutional reform are informed by the contested legacies of the past In Myanmar the military insists on the endurance of its 2008 Constitution while pro civilian actors resist military rule through alternative constitution making endeavours Offering a sociological view of constitutional endurance the book demonstrates how the social life of constitutions is central to the struggle for constitutional democracy and civilian rule in Myanmar
