Writing As Intermediary Korn, Lorenz ,Metzler, Berenike, 2022-12-20 For the cultural history of the Islamic World writing has long been recognized as a highly important form of art as calligraphy has traditionally held a particular place in the perception of Islamic elites and their artistic practices The culture of calligraphy was intimately connected with the production of prestigious book manuscripts but reached a climax in the creation of single leaf calligraphies that were also highly appreciated by collectors in centres of Islamic culture from the Ottoman Mediterranean to post Timurid Central Asia Safavid Iran and Mughal India At the same time writing by its very nature fulfilled its age old functions of encoding verbal language as text The present volume approaches the variegated aspects of writing fathoming its ambiguous character between text and image It contains ten contributions that originated from a conference held at the University of Bamberg in 2019 These studies range from text image relations in precious manuscripts through the use of Chinese decorated paper for artistic book production the training of calligraphers and the process of design to the iconic character of writing in the layout of books single leaf works of calligraphy iconic writing in contemporary art to more theoretical considerations on aesthetic perception
