God with Us John Breck, 2003 This collection of reflections contemplates the Divinity descending acting within and enlightening our day to day lives This eminent Orthodox ethicist and pastor ponders questions that arise in our culture and answers them in an engaging style that is fully accessible to the average layperson

The Center is Jesus Christ Himself Cardinal Timothy M. Dolan, Bishop James Massa, 2021-04-02 The polarization in the Church today can be traced back to a more fundamental crisis in theology one which has failed to connect our mundane experiences and the mysteries of the Christian faith with the person of Jesus Christ Ecclesial discourse on the so called hot button issues of the day too often take place without considering the foundation and goal of the Church And this is unfortunately due to a similar tendency in the academic theology that informs that ecclesial discourse In short much of post conciliar Catholic theology is adrift floating aimlessly away from the center of the Christian faith who is Christ The Center is Jesus Christ Himself is a collection of essays which anchor theological reflection in Jesus Christ These diverse essays share a unified focal point but engage with a variety of theological subdisciplines e.g. dogmatic moral Biblical etc areas e.g. Christology Pneumatology missiology etc and periods e.g. patristic medieval and modern Given the different combinations of sub disciplines areas and periods theology is susceptible to fragmentation when it is not held together by some principle of unity A theology in which the person of Jesus Christ serves as that principle of unity is a Christocentric theology Together the essays illustrate not only what Christocentric theology looks like but also what the consequences are when Christ is dislodged from the center whether by a conspicuous silence on or by a relativization of his unique salvific mission The volume is published in honor of Emeritus Professor of Systematic Theology at Boston College Rev Dr Robert P Imbelli who dedicated his teaching and writing to bringing Christ back to the center of Catholic theological discourse
