Gauteng Trial Memos 2014:

The Globalization of Hate Jennifer Schweppe, Mark Austin Walters, 2016 The Globalisation of Hate Internationalising Hate Crime is the first book to examine the impact of globalisation on our understanding of hate speech and hate crime Bringing together internationally acclaimed scholars with researchers policy makers and practitioners from across the world it critically scrutinises the concept of hate crime as a global phenomenon seeking to examine whether hate crime can or should be conceptualised within an international framework and if so how this might be achieved Beginning with the global dynamics of hate the contributions analyse whether hate crime can be defined globally whether universal principles can be applied to the phenomenon how hatred is spread and how it impacts upon our global society The middle portion of the book moves beyond the broader questions of globalisation to jurisdictional examples of how globalisation impacts upon our understanding of and also our responses to hate crime The chapters explore in greater detail what is happening around the world and how the international concepts of hate crime are being operationalised locally drawing out the themes of globalisation and internationalisation that are relevant to hate crime as evidenced by a number of jurisdictions from Europe the US Asia and Africa The final part of the book concludes with an examination of the different ways in which hate speech and hate crime is being combatted globally International law internet regulation and the use of restorative practices are evaluated as methods of addressing hate based conflict with the discussions drawn from existing frameworks as well as exploring normative standards for future international efforts Taken together these innovative and insightful contributions offer a timely investigation into the effects of hate crime offering an interdisciplinary approach to tackling what is now a global issue It will be of interest to scholars and students of criminology sociology and criminal justice as well as criminal justice practitioners police officers and policy makers
