limited recognition for her work as a result of gendered expectations within the discipline and society at large By reflecting on how we locate distinguished geographers and tell their histories Geographers Biobibliographical Studies Volume 37 makes an important contribution to fostering less canonical work in historical geography The Complacent Class Tyler Cowen, 2017-02-28 A Wall Street Journal and Washington Post Bestseller Tyler Cowen's blog Marginal Revolution is the first thing I read every morning And his brilliant new book The Complacent Class has been on my nightstand after I devoured it in one sitting I am at round the clock Cowen saturation right now Malcolm Gladwell Since Alexis de Tocqueville restlessness has been accepted as a signature American trait Our willingness to move take risks and adapt to change have produced a dynamic economy and a tradition of innovation from Ben Franklin to Steve Jobs The problem according to legendary blogger economist and best selling author Tyler Cowen is that Americans today have broken from this tradition we're working harder than ever to avoid change We're moving residences less marrying people more like ourselves and choosing our music and our mates based on algorithms that wall us off from anything that might be too new or too different Match.com matches us in love Spotify and Pandora match us in music Facebook matches us to just about everything else Of course this matching culture brings tremendous positives music we like partners who make us happy neighbors who want the same things We're more comfortable But according to Cowen there are significant collateral downsides attending this comfort among them heightened inequality and segregation and decreased incentives to innovate and create The Complacent Class argues that this cannot go on forever We are postponing change due to our near sightedness and extreme desire for comfort but ultimately this will make change when it comes harder The forces unleashed by the Great Stagnation will eventually lead to a major fiscal and budgetary crisis impossibly expensive rentals for our most attractive cities worsening of residential segregation and a decline in our work ethic The only way to avoid this difficult future is for Americans to force themselves out of their comfortable slumber to embrace their restless tradition again Sociocultural Perspectives on Youth

Ethical Consumerism Giuliano Reis, Michael Mueller, Rachel Gisewhite, Luiz Siveres, Renato Brito, 2017-11-07 This exciting new book advances current practice based and theoretical knowledge around how youth defines and engages with consumerism to provoke a larger conversation within science and environmental education It is also geared towards unveiling those literacy praxes that can assist youth to adopt more ethically oriented consumerist habits More specifically this book studies how youth's participation in the global consumer market intersects with media technologies new literacies as well as science and the environment from sociocultural perspectives In addition it considers how school science has mediated youth participation in hyper consumerism from food and technology to shelter and transportation This important and timely book is a must read for those interested in topics such as critical youth studies critical media literacy STEM arts based research STSE education citizenship education cultural studies policy studies curriculum studies socio scientific issues technology sustainability food studies social justice poverty and consumer behaviour A wide range of science technology and environmental educators from Australia Brazil Canada Netherlands and the United States have combined their perspectives to produce this exciting innovative timely and important book It should be essential reading for all teachers teacher educators and curriculum developers keen to address key issues raised by a commitment to assist students in refining their understanding of what constitutes socially culturally ethically and politically responsible consumer practices and supporting them in formulating and engaging in effective individual and collective action Derek Hodson Emeritus Professor of Science Education Ontario Institute for Studies in Education OISE University of Toronto Professor of Science Education at The University of Auckland New Zealand and Founding Editor of the Canadian Journal of Science Mathematics and Technology Education CJSMT The authors in the book deconstruct and analyse intricate economic sociopolitical and affective networks that are behind the cycles of production distribution and consumption of objects that are present in youngsters daily lives and their attitudes towards them Apart from breaking new ground by proposing and discussing socioculturally informed research about the topic the book connects with pedagogical approaches that value critical perspectives on the nature of the relationship between science technology society and environment It is a must read for both researchers and practitioners interested in issues related to sustainability and citizenship education Isabel Martins Professor of Science Education Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro Federal University of Rio de Janeiro UFRJ
