

End of School Letter to Students

I'm glad I was your teacher,
I've come to love you so.
I can't believe the end is here,
I hate to see you go.
Remember all the fun we had
in all the things we did.
But most of all, remember...
You're a VERY special kid!

What does it mean to be a TESOL professional of color? To address this question TESOL professionals of color from all over the world representing a wide range of racial, ethnic and cultural backgrounds offer accounts of their own experiences responding to two related questions: Can you identify critical events or conditions in your personal or professional life that are the result of you being a person of color that affect who you are now and what you do as a TESOL professional of color? What have you learned from these events or conditions that have had a bearing on your life as a TESOL professional of color? Color, Race, and English Language Teaching: Shades of Meaning is intended for researchers, professionals and students in the field of English language teaching. The book is designed as a text for MATESOL programs and courses that deal with issues of language, culture and teaching. The introduction presents a brief overview of relevant aspects of Critical Race Theory, narrative inquiry and educational research. Focus questions for each chapter are included to help readers apply aspects of the narratives to their own experience.
