The Breeder's Gazette, 1919 Motor Truck, 1923 The Motor Truck, 1921 A Tale of a Man, a Worm and a Snail Alan Fenwick, Wendie Norris, Becky McCall, 2021-12-14 Schistosomiasis is Africa's second most common parasitic disease. Less than 20 years ago over 200 million were infected. In many high risk areas the Schistosomiasis Control Initiative (SCI) has been helping to tackle the disease by offering treatments to millions of children. This book tells the story of a man Alan Fenwick who founded the SCI to control the worms and snails and so improve the lives of many burdened with the disease as well as reducing the numbers infected. Over this period SCI and the Ministries of Health and Education in 16 countries delivered over 220 million treatments. Treatment coverage of up to 75% has been achieved. Widely recognised as a cost effective and successful intervention SCI's knock on effects include improving overall physical health, school attendance and future prospects for millions of people.

The World's Carriers Year Book and Diary, 1938 Colonialism and Transnational Psychiatry Waltraud Ernst, 2013-10-15 This book focuses on the Ranchi Indian Mental Hospital, the largest public psychiatric facility in colonial India during the 1920s and 1930s. It breaks new ground by offering unique material for a critical engagement with the phenomenon of the indigenisation or Indianisation of the colonial medical services and the significance of international professional networks. The work also provides a detailed assessment of the role of gender and race in this field and of Western and culturally specific medical treatments and diagnoses. The volume offers an unprecedented look at both the local and global factors that had a strong bearing on hospital management and psychiatric treatment at this institution.

Tractor World, 1922 The Power Prophets, Electric Unit Drive and Utility-Generated Power as Seen Through the Eyes of Early 20th Century Writers Bernard C. Beaudreau, 2019-06-27 The Oxford Dictionary defines a prophet as a person who advocates or speaks in a visionary way about a new cause or theory, a definition which describes to a tee the set of early 20th century authors whose writings on power are presented here. In short, the early 20th century witnessed a power surge the likes of which the world had never experienced. As power and energy is the basis of material civilization, it stands to reason that this surge would surely go on to revolutionize life in general.

Mediterranean Diet Donato F. Romagnolo, Ornella I. Selmin, 2016-02-29 This text is an especially timely new text as the number of studies focusing on the impact of the Mediterranean diet on disease prevention increases every year. The fundamental question addressed in this text is how food components and behavior of the Mediterranean diet reduce the risk of chronic diseases. In depth chapters provide an overview of preclinical and clinical studies on Mediterranean dietary patterns, food components and lifestyle and their impact on health and disease. Large scale omic approaches are highlighted to educate the reader about the molecular mechanisms through which specific components of the Mediterranean diet improves health and the opportunities and challenges for translating into practice the food recommendations of the Mediterranean pyramid. The volume concludes with information about the nutritional adequacy of Mediterranean foods and
