Christmas from the Heart J. Kelly Casebolt,2020-11-12 Christmas from the Heart is a collection of short stories that revolve around the Christmas season It attempts to envelope the spirit of Christmas and all its joy but realizing the season may have its challenges we must face The five stories are fiction but have truisms that weave their way through the characters and its settings Varying in length each story has its own course of adventure while affecting the lives of those within its pages From the mountains and windy roads of West Virginia through the bluegrass of Kentucky and the breathtaking plateau of Tennessee Christmas from the Heart will remind you of the most cherished memories we tend to forget or misplace for a season It will let you slumber in your favorite chair under a quilt and discover the magic of Christmas all over again Normal Instructor,1912 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. The Australian Musical News ,1929 Ko Méri, Or a Cycle of Cathay Jessie Weston, 1890 Holidays--Animated! William D. Crump, 2019-03-11 Since the early 20th century animated Christmas cartoons have brightened the holiday season around the world first in theaters then on television From devotional portrayals of the Nativity to Santa battling villains and monsters this encyclopedia catalogs more than 1 800 international Christmas themed cartoons and others with year end themes of Hanukkah Kwanzaa and the New Year Explore beloved television specials such as A Charlie Brown Christmas theatrical shorts such as Santa s Workshop holiday episodes from animated television series like American Dad and The Simpsons feature films like The Nutcracker Prince and obscure productions such as The Insects Christmas along with numerous adaptations and parodies of such classics as A Christmas Carol and Twas the Night before When Music Migrates Jon Stratton, 2016-02-17 When Music Migrates uses rich material to examine the ways Christmas that music has crossed racial faultlines that have developed in the post Second World War era as a consequence of the movement of previously colonized peoples to the countries that colonized them This development which can be thought of in terms of diaspora can also be thought of as postmodern in that it reverses the modern flow which took colonizers and sometimes settlers from European countries to other places in the world Stratton explores the concept of song careers referring to how a song is picked up and then transformed by being revisioned by different artists and in different cultural contexts The idea of the song career extends the descriptive term cover in order to examine the transformations a song undergoes from artist to artist and cultural context to cultural context Stratton focuses on the British faultline between the post war African Caribbean settlers and the white Britons Central to the book is the question of identity For example how African Caribbean people have constructed their identity in Britain can be considered through an examination of when Police on My Back was written and how it has been revisioned by Lethal Bizzle in its most recent iteration At the same time this song written by the Guyanese migrant Eddy Grant for his mixed race group The Equals crossed the racial faultline when it was picked up by the punk rock group The Clash Conversely Johnny Reggae originally a pop ska track written about a skinhead by Jonathan King and performed by a group of studio artists whom King named The Piglets was revisioned by a Jamaican studio group called The Roosevelt Singers After this the character of Johnny Reggae takes on a life of his own and appears in tracks by Jamaican toasters as a Rastafarian Johnny s identity is then totally transformed It is this migration of music that will appeal not only to those studying popular music but Jonathan Merle Elisabeth Boyd Bayly,1890 John Stainer and the Musical Life of Victorian Britain Peter Charlton,1984 Beschrijving van leven en werk van de Engelse componist 1840 1901 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series,1966 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration the copyright date the copyright registration number etc
