QUESTION 1 – 30 marks

Read both Text A and Text B and answer the next questions.

TEXT A

- Questions that the WorldCup-winning Springboks captain Siya Kolisi answered – came partly unexpected – in his inspirational autobiography Rise.
 - South African rugby player Siya Kolisi proves to be an inspiration in and off the pitch. After his first World Cup in South Africa's rugby team to more than 100 years. From humble beginnings to international stardom, Kolisi's life shows the power of achieving a positive mindset.
 - Here are questions we put answered from Kolisi's autobiography, Rise.
1. Write your five persons that set him on the path to glory?
- Kolisi makes no bones about it: "Without her, I wouldn't be here. That's not a figure of speech," Kolisi explains, talking about his grandmother Nkomo, who brought him up in the township of Dordos in the Eastern Cape city of Port Elizabeth. An remarkable woman, she was the "positive, loving, supportive and protective" influence in his toughest of times. She would never go without food herself to ensure Kolisi had enough to stave off his mother's hunger. She really did make great but will always be in his heart.
2. What was his first sporting triumph?
- Kolisi began playing soccer when he was and loved playing goals, shooting himself above in the hard, compressed earth of a makeshift pitch, guarding goals made of bricks. He and his team mates would share a goal just place of the cards (that's about 25 yards or 30 yards between them) when they set a 'tournament' against kids from another street in the township. They would then buy pieces of vegetables – pieces of dough filled with sausage and cheese – as their trophies. As often as not, though, he realised, it would be and with a trophy, but abstaining for breaking a ribbon.
3. What most attracted him to rugby?
- As a teenager? It's a funny one! No, when he was the white-eyed four-year-old who was watching the national football team arrive from Dordosville State performing their homeland famous pre-match challenge, the Haka at the 2007 World Cup. "To me, it was just another well-dressed whitey of dancing, high-spirited and eye-rolling, and it's probably with my friends the day, and performed for my dad when he came home from work every evening," realised Kolisi.

12. What was the moment that changed his life?

- It's a complicated one for it could so easily have turned different, says Kolisi as he goes on to describe his decision to drop out of school and working with other boys in the township. "I could have ended up unemployed from then, like my friend's school options (job or sports or both)," he reflects. "It's a training session for a local rugby team collective African Brothers, currently a shooting, nothing, but experienced coach called Ben Gengeni, proved an inspiration. "I finished that session exhausted, injured and bleeding, but I walked home on adrenaline. I was the most handsome thing I've ever done. From that moment on, I never looked back, and never looked another way again," Kolisi remembered.

13. What was his first team?

- After Kolisi moved to a life-changing primary to attend Dore High School in Port Elizabeth, he walked to rugby. Springboks came to their then, headed by Sir John Burger. "He was my hero, not just because I was almost like him, but because of the way he played. He was everywhere, always had his hand flying as he threw himself into tackles, charged into goals and ran the hard yards in the tight scrums," he remembers. He was his only really serious role player for his school, but his teacher showed him a piece of paper in his hand, which he was to return and had got the signature that in this day, a small piece of his prized possession. "If you'd told me then that one day I'd be a school captain, it would have been just my dream, but when I heard, I'd have thought you'd lost your mind," realised Kolisi.

- 1.1 Write your five persons that set him on the path to glory? (5)
- 1.2 Quote one sentence from paragraph 1 to prove the subjects were correct. (3)
- 1.3 In your own words, explain "famed and famous" from paragraph 4. (2)
- 1.4 Explain what you understand the word "hero" from paragraph 13. (2)
- 1.5 Why was the training session with the African Brothers an experience for Siya? (2)
- 1.6 What is one of Siya's most prized possessions? (3)
- 1.7 Explain what it means to "be on cloud nine" – paragraph 11. (2)
- 1.8 Provide a suitable title for the above passage. (2)
- 1.9 Give a synonym for "celebration" paragraph 8. (2)
