

"Brighton Rock"

Question 1:

Hale was nervous.

He had been in Brighton for three hours.

He was in danger of being murdered by someone.

He had inky fingers and bitten nails.

Question 2:

The writer utilises language to display Brighton on that particular day as crowded and a place that attracts many people: 'it had seemed quite easy for Hale to be lost in Brighton.' The direct phrase 'quite easy' illustrates that the location is generously scattered with thousands of people everywhere, reinforcing the idea that it is not hard to get astray. The verb 'lost' evokes a strong sense of uncertainty and possibly anxiousness as it builds up a feeling of fear amongst the reader. Despite this, it may have also been implemented to convey the fact, that the location is overflowing with people as a positive thing. This is because the place has patently attracted many individuals, which may be due to the pleasant weather, further indicating how Brighton is presented as appealing.
