Enquécircte Sur Le Made In France:

Names in Times of Crisis Paola Cotticelli-Kurras, 2025-08-11 This volume addresses the fields of naming and branding in particular company and brand names names in slogans and advertising language in general and all other proper names that are of economic interest in times of crisis The contributions analyze both advertising on social media as well as printed material concerning commercial names slogans for climate advertising pandemic situations new branding and communication strategies in critical times such as war and energetic decieny The focus of the volume lies in stimulating reflections on how communication with consumers has changed on current advertising and marketing strategies and on naming in the face of sustainability and fairness The current war scenario and the resulting problems concerning energy supplies the increased migration in the Western European nations and the political and social pressure to implement ambitious climate goals lead the economy and advertising agencies to profound reconsiderations The Modernization of Rural France Roger Price, 2017-07-06 This book first published in 1983 is a major contribution to our understanding of how and why French rural peasant society became modernised by radical changes in the communications system in particular the coming of the railways The author argues that complex changes in the transport systems and their effects on agricultural market structures finally brought traditional French rural civilisation to an end With the extension of commercialisation and the widening of horizons new economic and social structures and changed attitudes rapidly came into being Writing as an economic historian the author has adopted an interdisciplinary approach to this study which incorporates economic sociological historical and geographical methods and data Top Incomes in France in the Twentieth Century Thomas Piketty, 2018-05-07 This pioneering work by Thomas Piketty explains the facts and dynamics of income inequality in France in the twentieth century On its publication in French in 2001 it helped launch the international program led by Piketty and others to explore the grand patterns and causes of global inequality research that has since transformed public debate

Israeli-Palestinian Conflict in the Francophone World Nathalie Debrauwere-Miller, 2011-02-09 With interdisciplinary analyses of texts whose origins span the diversity of the Jewish and Muslim traditions the provocative essays collected in Israeli Palestinian Conflict in the Francophone World offer startling insights into the meaning of the volatile history of this conflict in the Francophone world In France and the Francophone world the hostilities of the on going Israeli Palestinian conflict are consistently reenacted in cultural clashes between the large Muslim and Jewish populations within France and throughout the Francophone Diaspora The notable scholars appearing in this collection interrogate the complex history of this conflict from the beginnings of Zionism in 1897 to the first and second Intifada of 1987 and 2000 and give unique perspectives culled from a diverse range of literary philosophical historical and psychoanalytic frameworks An important and unique volume Israeli Palestinian Conflict in the Francophone World will shed new light for the reader on the dense ideological antagonisms at the heart of the Israeli Palestinian conflict and will surely be celebrated as an invaluable resource for scholars students and teachers alike The London and Paris Observer ,1830 Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore Anonymous,2025-08-01 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Regulating Religion James T. Richardson,2012-12-06 Regulating Religion Case Studies from Around the Globe presents through the inclusion of contributions by international scholars a global examination of how a number of contemporary societies are regulating religious groups It focuses on legal efforts to exert social control over such groups especially through court cases but also with selected major legislative attempts to regulate them As such this analysis falls within the broad area of the sociology of social control and more specifically legal social control a topic of great interest when studying how contemporary societies attempt to maintain social order The factual details about social and legal developments in societies where religion has been defined as problematic include Western and Eastern Europe Asia Oceania and the Americas This book will be of interest to researchers and students in the sociology of religion the sociology of law social policy and religious studies as well as policy makers Bulletin of the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics ,1899 Bulletin of the Department of Labor ,1899 The European Women's History Reader Fiona Montgomery,Christine Collette,2002 The European Women s History Reader is a fascinating collection of seminal articles and extracts exploring the social economic religious and political history of women across Europe since the late eighteenth century This ambitious volume is arranged into four chronological sections all with their own introductions which provide context for the chapters that follow The collection also includes a useful general introduction which makes the articles accessible to students and helps to define this increasingly important area of study Arab Worlds Beyond the Middle East and North Africa Mariam F. Alkazemi,Claudia E. Youakim,2021-06-17 Just like people around the world have done for generations Arab people from the Middle East and North African MENA region have immigrated to various nations around the world A number of push factors account for why groups have left their homeland and pulled to another nation to settle The history and patterns of Arab migration out of the MENA illustrates the wide array of reasons for these patterns primarily illustrating that mass emigration and settlement are highly linked to a number of factors including social political economic familial climates of each nation state and its policies If it is one takeaway that this edited volume brings to light it is that the Arab MENA does not only include a diverse population within each nation state it also illustrates the ways in which their settlement in new nations have contributed to their own identity development patterns their communities and that of their new nation state This book celebrates the achievements and acknowledges the challenges of the new communities that Arabs have built around the world It shows examples of societies that have embraced the Arab diaspora as well as examples of sidelining these communities These examples come from a number of subject areas from music to international affairs The examples are both contemporary and historical authored by individuals with a diverse set of disciplinary lenses and professional training This book is meant to fill a gap in the literature as it expands on the understanding of Arab communities to inform and inspire a more nuanced inclusive approach to the study of the Arab diaspora It does so by revealing untold stories that challenge stereotypes to push for more inclusive media representation of Arab identity and its development in various regions of the world Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ,1883 Journal of Agriculture ,1831 The Quarterly Journal Of Agriculture William Blackwood,1831 The Labor Problem and the Social Catholic Movement in France Parker Thomas Moon,1921 Population and Trade in France in 1861-2 Frederic MARSHALL (Author of "French Home Life.".),1862

The Quarterly Journal of Agriculture ,1831 Issues for June 1841 Mar 1843 includes the prize essays and transactions of the Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland The Vichy Past in France Today Richard J. Golsan,2016-12-20 The Vichy Past in France Today Corruptions of Memory is an interdisciplinary study examining the continuing impact of the memory of Vichy and World War II in French politics literature intellectual discourse and debates and the law It argues that despite multiple efforts in all of these areas to come to terms with France s World War II past and to fulfill a duty to memory to Vichy s Jewish victims the nation is still not reconciled to the so called Dark Years even seventy years after the Liberation Indeed the Vichy past occupies important recent works of literature inflects much political discussion and debate often serving as a metaphor for political and moral evil Its legacies include the passage of problematic laws that dangerously distort and simplify complex historical realities Chapter I examines the historical and legal legacies of the 1990s trials for crimes against humanity and traces their impact on the so called memorial laws of the new century Chapter II revisits the 2002 presidential elections in France and the impact of Jean Marie Le Pen s first round victory on intellectual and cultural debate Chapter III explores Alain Badiou s controversial characterization of Sarkozy s presidential victory as a return of Petainism in The Meaning of Sarkozy The discussion is cast against the backdrop of Badiou s radical political thought and Sarkozy s political uses and misuses of the World War II past Chapter IV examines the controversy surrounding the publication of Jonathan Littell s The Kindly Ones 2006 and its morally and historically problematic portrayal of an unrepentant Nazi and SS officer Chapter V discusses Yannick Haenel s fictional recreation of the Polish resistance hero Jan Karski The Messenger 2009 in his novel by that name and the polemics between the novel s author and the maker of the classic Holocaust documentary film Shoah Claude Lanzmann The Conclusion first explores the ways in which the memory of Vichy inflects literary and political reflections on the recent terrorist attacks in France It also examines strategies proposed by French philosophers for moving beyond the impasse of Vichy s memory in France before concluding with a different strategy proposed by the author for the French nation to move beyond the memory of the Dark Years Annual Report Carnegie Endowment for International Peace,1925 The Cotton Industry in France Robert Blair Forrester,1921
