Enri Artier Resson He Ecisive Oment:

Henri Cartier-Bresson, Walker Evans Henri Cartier-Bresson, Walker Evans, Agnès Sire, Jean-François Chevrier, 2009 Walker Evans and Henri Cartier Bresson belonged to the same generation and shared an insatiable intellectual curiosity Their works had been exhibited together in 1935 at the Julien Levy Gallery in New York and they shared a period working in America when Cartier Bresson spent eighteen months between 1946 and 1947 preparing his show at The Museum of Modern Art This book draws a parallel between the work about America made by Evans and Cartier Bresson in the period from 1930 to 1947 As John Szarkowski argued Evans defined in his work the essence of the documentary aesthetic Cartier Bresson on the other hand was making a fresh start leaving behind his work in moving imagery and fully embracing a career as a stills photographer But they were both approaching their work as a form of social criticism imbued with references to literature and painting Photograph America presents an opportunity to confront and compare the visions of both of these seminal photographic masters at once SAGE Visual Methods Jason Hughes, 2012-07-23 In contemporary Western societies the visual domain has come to assume a hitherto unprecedented cultural centrality Daily life is replete with a potentially endless stream of images and other visual messages from the electronic and paper based billboards of the street to the TV and Internet feeds of the home The visual has become imbued with a symbolic potency a signifying power that seemingly eclipses that of all other sensory data The central aim of this four volume collection is to explore key approaches to visual research methods and to consider some of the core principles issues debates and controversies surrounding the use of visual techniques in relation to three key enterprises 1 documentation and representation 2 interpretation and classification and 3 elicitation and collaboration Volume One Principles Issues Debates and Controversies in Visual Research serves as a theoretical backdrop to the field as a whole It introduces core epistemological ethical and methodological debates that effectively cut across the four volume collection as a whole Volume Two Documentation and Representation illustrates approaches to visual documentation and representation from classical documentaries to contemporary state of the art modes of visual anthropology and ethnography Volume Three Interpretation and Classification examines core debates surrounding and approaches to visual analysis Volume Four Elicitation and Collaboration explores participative approaches to visual inquiry Picturing Childhood Patricia Holland, 2004-01-23 Whether controversial or taken for granted pictures of children are everywhere in magazines newspapers and advertisements on greetings cards and the Internet Picturing Childhood demonstrates how these familiar images reveal a view of childhood which is constantly changing With debates over children's rights in the 1970s child sexual abuse in the 1980s violent children in the 1990s and precocity and consumerism in the 2000s the traditional image of childhood innocence survives only as a form of kitsch Using images from a wide variety of sources this text considers the popular imagery in relation to news education welfare charity and consumerism and asks what implications does all this have for the ways in which children themselves are treated The Distance Between Us Miroslava
