

Hate

I hate myself for this

I hate this person I've become

I hate who I am and who I thought I would never be

I hate my father for making me this way

I hate the selfishness I have now become

I hate the endless pain I put people through

I hate the way I hide myself in this pain

I hate the crazy world I'm living in called my life

I hate when my friends suffer because of my problems

I hate the fact that everything I've worked so hard not to be is what defines me

I hate that people can't see who I really am

I hate that my heart is broken with no one to put it back together

Stay out of my life

Joy Even on Your Worst Days Tom Are,2021-09-21 The world the apostle Paul inhabited was dramatically different from our time He knew nothing of capitalism or physics or Zoom and more significantly Paul was a regular in Caesar s prison For us Caesar is a salad But a constant in the human story is that every life faces suffering Paul s life was no different And yet on Paul s worst days he still exhibited a spirit of joy In this spirit of joy Paul offers us some inspiration Joy is not a common reality in modern life We are more acquainted with anxiety and fear and on good days we can settle for happiness but joy is less common The worst days come to all of us At some point the dreams die the body fails the spirit is crushed Those days leave their mark on us But an imprisoned apostle passed down 104 verses to an ancient congregation in Philippi and they have passed it down to us It is their testimony that when the worst days come and they will they do not have to be the end of joy Indeed they might be the beginning Outskirts Press Presents Fandemonium Volume 4 Outskirts Press,2014-07-22 Outskirts Press is proud to publish our fourth collection of poetry and short stories submitted by our Facebook friends at www.facebook.com/OutskirtsPress Our call for submissions was a great success and this array of pieces spanning all styles and genres gives authors an opportunity for free publication in our annual anthology Proceeds from the sale of Fandemonium Volume 4 will be donated to the American Red Cross from Outskirts Press and our Facebook fans Thank you for helping us to support this important cause Every year Fandemonium inspires our Facebook community to participate in support of the Red Cross and also provides an easy fun free way to experience the joy of publishing with Outskirts Press Outskirts Press offers high quality full service self publishing and book marketing for writers and professionals seeking a cost effective fast and flexible way to publish and distribute their books worldwide while retaining 100% of their rights 100% of their profits and 100% of the creative control Visit www.OutskirtsPress.com today for more information Goodbye My Kampong! Josephine Chia,2023-05-30 Sequel to Josephine Chia's 2014 Singapore Literature prize winning book Kampong Spirit Gotong Royong Life in Potong Pasir 1955 to 1965 Kampong life in Singapore did not end in 1965 with her independence In Josephine Chia's new collection of non fiction stories the phasing out of attap thatched villages the largest mass movement in Singapore is set against the backdrop of significant national events Weaving personal tribulations her teenage angst and the experiences of villagers from her kampong Josephine skilfully parallels the hopes and challenges of a toddling nation going through the throes of industrialisation and rapid changes from 1966 to 1975 These delightful real life stories sprinkled with snippets of her Peranakan culture reveal the joie de vivre of gotong royong or community spirit despite impoverished conditions in the last days of kampong life Just Poems Larry Logan,2015-05-20 This book these poems were written during four confusing and painful years that began with the end of a 30 year marriage then sudden loss of a 17 year career due to a mental breakdown and the result of destructive addictions It depicts a search for meaning in the interaction of self life and divinity Just Poems is a journal of mental illness depression self harm cutting alcoholism suicide and abusive relationship and spiritual crisis It is not all darkness though Two sections of the book contain various random poems of a more lighthearted nature These are not my poems They belong to you the reader How you respond to a poem what it means for you is your experience that is different than my experience writing it Also they do not exist unto themselves Each one is like a tree unaware that it is When a poem is ready for birth it talks to me and I write it It is just a poem like a tree is just a tree There are no good or bad trees just trees just poems WHAT ARE CALORIES? DANIEL E. Recomposing Ecopoetics Lynn Keller,2018-01-16 In the first book devoted exclusively to the ecopoetics of the twenty first century Lynn Keller examines poetry of what she terms the self conscious Anthropocene a period in which there is widespread awareness of the scale and severity of human effects on the planet Recomposing Ecopoetics analyzes work written since the year 2000 by thirteen North American poets including Evelyn Reilly Juliana Spahr Ed Roberson and Jena Osman all of whom push the bounds of literary convention as they seek forms and language adequate to complex environmental problems Drawing as often on linguistic experimentalism as on traditional literary resources these poets respond to environments transformed by people and take nature to be a far more inclusive and culturally imbricated category than conventional nature poetry does This interdisciplinary study not only brings cutting edge work in ecocriticism to bear on a diverse archive of contemporary environmental poetry it also offers the environmental humanities new ways to understand the cultural and affective dimensions of the Anthropocene

Oceanic Becoming Rob Wilson,2025-02-14 From disappearing coral reefs and ocean acidification to floating great garbage patches the Pacific Ocean is an ever present reminder of the Anthropocene In Oceanic Becoming Rob Wilson demonstrates that in the midst of the planetary crises the Pacific now faces it must be understood as interconnected to the other oceans Wilson frames this interconnection as Oceania reconceiving the world oceans as tied to sites of urban dwelling and life sustenance from Boston to Brisbane that are increasingly threatened by late capitalism Confronting these threats Wilson argues requires a project he theorizes as worlding a process of world making and world remaking across Oceania that would create new forms of belonging and connection at local regional and transnational levels Wilson shows how Oceania is not just a site of peril but one charged with emergent literary and social formations that can provide the basis for new solidarities futures and ecologies
