Thomistic Philosophy in the Face of Evolutionary Fact Juan Eduardo Carreño Pavez,2024-06-07 The purpose of this book is to integrate the fact of biological evolution which as such should not be confused with the evolutionary theories and ideologies supposedly based on that fact with the principles and contents of Thomistic philosophy After identifying the main difficulties involved in this endeavor and how they have been addressed by other authors within the Thomistic tradition we present our own thesis We begin by arguing that the diversity of species and varieties of corporeal living beings is consistent with Aquinas thought Next we distinguish between two forms of evolution namely intraspecific and transspecific following the central tenets of Aquinas philosophy the ontological significance and causalities involved in both types of evolution are analyzed We complete this exposition by offering a general overview of evolutionary history in light of the criteria presented with emphasis on anthropogenesis Juan Eduardo Carre o Pavez 1976 holds a PhD in Medical Sciences and a PhD in Philosophy After completing a postdoc at the Center for Medieval Philosophy Georgetown University he returned to the University of los Andes Chile where he has a position as Associate

Professor His research has focused on Thomas Aquinas thought mediaeval philosophy and the dialogue between theology philosophy and science He is the author of several articles and monographs including Vivere viventibus est esse la vida como perfecci n del ser en la obra de Tom s de Aquino Eunsa 2020 and Una reconsideraci n del estatus de la mente animal y humana Ril Editores 2024

About Face Christopher L. Flanders, 2011-03-07 For Thais face is a fact writes Flanders However whether in theology evangelism or issues involving sin salvation or atonement Thai Christians and missionaries alike seem either uninterested in or possibly incapable of addressing issues related to face This glaring incongruity between the value of face for Thais and the lack of intentional engagement within the Thai Christian community is deeply troubling Surely such a lack of careful attention to face is a dangerous posture Uncritical views of face furtively attaching to the theology of the Thai church are potentially detrimental for its life and mission Such seems to be an unavoidable situation without proper attention to face Additionally to ignore face is to run the risk of missing valuable cultural resources implicit in the Thai experience of face for the critical task of authentic Thai theological reflection This lack of engagement with face raises critical issues with which we must wrestle How is it that such a central sociocultural issue has not been a more significant part of the Thai Christian vocabulary or experience How pervasive are these negative attitudes regarding face What lies behind them Might this lack of self conscious engagement with face have any relationship to the persistent Thai perception of Christianity as a foreign Western religion How should Christians understand this notion of face and how it relates to the ways we understand and proclaim the gospel

Motherdom Alex Bollen, 2025-03-04 When Alex Bollen had her first baby the fear of being a bad mother made her guilty and anxious A researcher with twenty years experience she went looking for answers To her surprise the studies she looked at were exaggerated and misrepresented in the media forming the foundation for what she calls Good Mother myths These myths are an assortment of narratives ideologies and stereotypes deployed to censure mothers and blame them for every societal ill Incensed by the way bad science is used to shame mothers Alex Bollen decided to set the record straight With meticulous research and keen insight Motherdom exposes both the shaky science and unjustified prescriptions about how mothers should naturally behave Competing visions of birth natural versus medical mean women can be criticised whatever happens raising the odds that birth will be a damaging even deadly experience Mothers are judged and belittled whether they breast or bottle feed their babies Bogus claims about brain development and dodgy attachment theories mean that whatever mothers do it is never enough This has to stop We must replace Good Mother myths with a realistic approach to parenting Alex Bollen proposes motherdom a more expansive conception of motherhood which values and respects the different ways people raise their children Instead of finding fault with mothers Motherdom shifts our focus to the relationships and resources children need to flourish

The Social Organisation of the Lo Wiili Jack Goody, 2018-08-16 Originally published in 1967 second edition presents an account of the life and social organisation of the Lo Wiili of the Haute Volta and Ghana Chapters on the geographic and ethnographic background and economic system are followed by a detailed analysis of Lo Wiili social organisation which in its broad outlines is typical of the general area Of particular theoretical interest however is the co existence in the one society of both patrilans and matrilians and the way in which the Lo Wiili see themselves not as a boundary maintaining group tribe but define themselves by cultural criteria which are relative to the group with which they are being compared The study is also concerned with the traditional role of the Earth Shrine in maintaining social control a widespread feature of West African societies American Journal of Physical Anthropology ,1921 Bibliography in physical anthropology 1942 43 in Dec issue

Introduction to Research Methods in Education Keith F Punch,2009-03-19 Based on the popular Introduction to Social Research Methods this book offers a highly accessible clear and engaging introduction to research in education which has been carefully and extensively developed to fully meet the needs of those studying in education and related fields Introduction to Research Methods in Education assumes no previous knowledge of the subject and focuses on helping the reader develop a clear conceptual understanding of the nature of empirical research in education and of how those ideas lead to and underlie the principal research techniques Qualitative quantitative and mixed methods approaches are covered along with practical guidance on issues such as how to prepare a research proposal write a literature review and analyse different types of data This book is an ideal introduction to researching in an educational context for students at both undergraduate and postgraduate level and will be a must have for anyone studying on a research methods course or doing a research project for themselves
