Gauteng Department Of Health Nursing Programme 2016:

Geographies of Health and Development Rachel Bezner Kerr, Isaac Luginaah, 2016-03-03 The geographies of health and development is an emerging sub discipline tying in with many of the conceptual theoretical and practical components of other disciplines working in health health care economics and international development Spatially and theoretically grounded in geography this collection offers a fresh perspective on the dialectic relationships between health and development Health problems in a developing context take on much higher rates of prevalence as a result of the varied cultural structural and economic vulnerabilities of the people they impact This book begins by exploring some of the circumstances surrounding the distinctive health inequities currently facing many developing countries including malaria maternal mortality and HIV AIDS This is followed by a discussion of how matters of physical access and human resource issues and perhaps most importantly the challenges of financing together shape the access and utilization of health care Examining how the environment interacts to influence the health of the people that live there the next section includes discussion around challenges of food in security and the importance of clean and uncontaminated water for health Finally the book explores the influence of globalization on health specifically within the urban environment against the backdrop of global health policy

Healthcare Access - New Threats, New Approaches Ayşe Emel Önal, 2023-11-02 Access to health care is the ability to receive health services for the prevention detection and treatment of disorders that affect health For health care to be accessible it must be affordable and able to protect and improve health There are myriad reasons that may make access to health services difficult or even impossible These include economic problems conflicts climate change internal and external migrations beliefs and so on This book examines many of these barriers to health care and proposes solutions for overcoming them

A framework for continuous quality improvement for fast-track queues in clinics in eThekweni Dudu G. Sokhela , 2024-05-31 This book explores primary health care users who visit the clinic for short consultations those who regularly come to collect medication for chronic illnesses such as hypertension diabetes mellitus arthritis epilepsy tuberculosis HIV and AIDS clients for family planning and babies coming for routine weight monitoring immunisation and routine prophylactic treatment Since these health care users come for short consultations the research investigates where the bottlenecks in the clinic queues resulted in long waiting times and if these consultations were of expected quality This book arose from the author s own experience working in a primary health care setting focused on the challenges faced by patients This book will add to the body of knowledge and management of health care users as this book offers practical recommendations that are tailor-made for specific health care users to be implemented by primary health care providers and settings Furthermore the country is faced with a burden of communicable and non communicable diseases New strategies are required to address the ever changing disease pattern and the rapidly growing populations

Young People, Violence and Strategic Interventions in Sub-Saharan Africa Kammila Naidoo,Oluwafemi Adeagbo,Xiaoming Li,2023-01-20 This edited volume offers a rich collection of up to date research and critical scholarship from various African institutions on incidents of youth violence intervention and prevention in sub Saharan Africa It integrates thinking evidence responses and debates relating to this topic laying the basis for fresh insights and innovative strategies The chapters capture a spectrum of pertinent issues such as economic hardship lockdowns sexual and reproductive health pregnancy online sexual harassment xenophobic violence and micro aggressions in school contexts and present guidelines on how countries might learn from successful interventions recently implemented They explore young people s access to familial and community resources state sponsored initiatives peer counselling youth friendly services and other relevant structures Thus among other things this volume stimulates further debate on what is driving violence in different African contexts specifically how intersectional identities create vulnerabilities to violence and influences ways of dealing with the issue This interdisciplinary and cross cutting volume serves as a vital resource for experts at universities in international organisations civil society groups and intergovernmental organisations who wish to both analyse and take action to address and prevent the type of violence that currently afflicts young people sub Saharan Africa today The Report: South Africa 2012 ,2012 Proceedings of the International Conference on Education Research Reza Hosseini, Handbook of Research on Shifting Paradigms of Disabilities in the Schooling System Maapola-Thobejane, Hlabathi Rebecca, Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert, 2023-10-16 Children living with disabilities face hardships of many kinds that make it impossible for them to access quality education in the same way as their peers in the schooling system All children are entitled to quality education and a supportive school environment that allows them to develop to their full potential irrespective of their disabilities However different factors make it difficult for many learners who live with disabilities to access participate and succeed in the schooling system The Handbook of Research on Shifting Paradigms of Disabilities in the Schooling System focuses on the global trends in education that require the total eradication of every form of impediment in the process of accessing quality education and lifelong learning for people living with disabilities Rooted in the philosophy of equal rights human dignity and social justice access to quality education for all has led to the current drive for inclusive education Covering topics such as inclusive schooling systems visual impairments and emotional disabilities this major reference work is an essential resource for students and faculty of higher education administrators of both K 12 and higher education government officials policymakers non profit organizations researchers and academicians African Economic Development Christopher Cramer, John Sender, Arkebe Oqubay, 2020 This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries Its starting point is the striking variation in African economic performance Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences The authors highlight not only differences between countries but also variations within countries differences often organized around distinctions of gender class and ethnic identity For example neo natal mortality and school dropout have been reduced particularly for some classes of women in some areas of Africa Horticultural and agribusiness exports have grown far more rapidly in some countries than in others These variations and many others point to opportunities for changing performance reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past The book rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice but it does pay close attention to the results of policy in more industrialized parts of the world Seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be were certain impediments suddenly removed The authors criticize a wide range of orthodox and heterodox economists especially for their cavalier attitude to evidence Drawing on their own decades of research and policy experience they combine careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with political economy insights mainly derived from Kalecki Kaldor and Hirschman to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment

Ligne directrice de l'OMS relative aux services de santé scolaires World Health Organization, 2024-03-19 Ligne directrice de l'OMS relative aux services de santé scolaires The Politics of Potential

Michelle Pentecost, 2024-01-12 The first one thousand days of human life or the period between conception and age two is one of the most pivotal periods of human development Optimizing nutrition during this time not only prevents childhood malnutrition but also determines future health and potential The Politics of Potential examines early life interventions in the first one thousand days of life in South Africa drawing on fieldwork from international conferences government offices health care facilities and the everyday lives of fifteen women and their families in Cape Town Michelle Pentecost explores various aspects of a politics of potential a term that underlines the first one thousand days concept and its effects on clinical care and the lives of childbearing women in South Africa Why was the First One Thousand Days project so readily adopted by South Africa and many other countries Pentecost not only explores this question but also discusses the science of intergenerational transmissions of health disease and human capital and how this constitutes new forms of intergenerational responsibility The women who are the target of first one thousand days interventions are cast as both vulnerable and responsible for the health of future generations such that despite its history intergenerational responsibility in South Africa remains entrenched in powerfully gendered and racialized ways
