Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimagined to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law Charles J. Russo, 2013-07-11 The Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law addresses legal issues from institutions of higher learning in seventeen countries on all six inhabited continents in a reader friendly manner All chapters follow the same outline on institutional issues faculty rights student rights and emerging issues so that similarities and differences can be compared An introductory chapter provides an overview on the legal status of higher education as selected in various international covenants In addition a concluding chapter draws the themes addressed throughout the book together and centers on the concept of best practice management This book serves as valuable resource for educational practitioners in higher education insofar as it provides them with an enhanced awareness of strategies that are being used to manage problems commonly faced in multiple educational settings South Africa Yearbook ,2006 The Southern African Development Directory ,1996 The South African Development Directory ,1996 Introduction to Health Services Management S. Emancipatory Feminism in the Time of Covid-19 Hawzhin Azeez, Asanda Benya, Christine Bischoff, Jane Cherry, Jacklyn Cock, Jane Mbithi-Dikgol, Samantha Hargreaves, Courtney Morgan, Inge Konik, Sonia Phalatse, Busi Sibeko, Dineo Skosana, 2023-07 The Covid pandemic threw into stark relief the multi dimensional threats created by neoliberal capitalism Government measures to alleviate the crisis were largely inadequate leaving women in particular working class women to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers

Emancipatory Feminism in the time of Covid 19 The seventh volume in the Democratic Marxism series explores how many subaltern women working class peasant and indigenous Challenge hegemonic neoliberal feminism through their resistance to ordinary capitalist practices and ecological extractivism Contributors cover womens responses in a wide range of contexts from women leading the defence of Rojava the Kurdish region of Syria to approaches to anti capitalist ecology and building food secure pathways in communities across Africa to championing climate justice in mining affected communities and transforming gender divisions in mining labour practices in South Africa To contesting macro economic policies affecting the working conditions of nurses Their practices demonstrate a feminist understanding of the current systemic crises of capitalism and patriarchal oppression What is offered in this collection is a subaltern women s grassroots resistance focused on advancing and enabling solidarity based political projects deepening democracy building capacities and alliances to advance new feminist alternatives A New Paradigm of the African State M. Muiu, G. Martin, 2009-01-05 Offers a historical multidisciplinary perspective on African political systems and institutions ranging from Antiquity Egypt Kush and Axum to the present with particular focus on their destruction through successive exogenous processes including the Atlantic slave trade imperialism colonialism and neo colonialism or globalization Enterprise 200, 1999 Annual Report Gauteng (South Africa). Department of Health, 2001 State of Transition Clive Harber, 2001-01-01 The main purpose of this book is to provide a concise overview of educational transition to document discuss and analyse key changes and continuities in South African education since the end of apartheid What makes this period particularly fascinating for educationalists is that the legacy of apartheid and the years of international isolation meant that educational reform had to be fundamental and wide ranging if South Africa was to become a modern democratic state participating in the global political economy of the twenty first century The result was that in the final five years of the twentieth century South Africa became something of a laboratory or crucible for educational innovation From 1948 to the early 1990s South African government was based on an institutionalised system of racial separation and inequality formally known as apartheid A white minority dominated a black majority in a context of stark social political and economic differentiation While the apartheid state used force to maintain this system formal education was also used to try to make the basic tenets of apartheid normal and acceptable in the minds of South Africans From the apartheid government s point of view the role of education was to help to perpetuate and reproduce a racist system and to encourage obedience and conformity to that system It is not therefore surprising that in the 1970s and 1980s education also became a key site in the struggle against apartheid or that educational reform was high on the agenda of the first democratically elected government after April 1994 However while the direction of educational reform has inevitably been strongly influenced by the nature and history of the anti apartheid struggle inside South Africa the global political and economic context has also played its part in shaping educational debate and policy outside South Africa Clive Harber s book recognises that there is a difference between planned reform and the actual nature of educational change on the ground and tries where possible to set reform in the contextual realities of South African education as they presently exist It aims to understand the difficulties and ambiguities of transition as well as the overt aims and goals as enshrined in policy documents and legislation Debates of the National Assembly (Hansard) South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly, 1996 SAMJ, 2007 Deadly Delay: South Africa's Efforts to Prevent HIV in Survivors of Sexual Violence, 2004 Drum, 2006
