PC/Computing, 1996 Racial Erotics C. Winter Han, 2021-07-16 Finalist for the 2022 Lambda Literary Award for LGBTQ Studies Finalist for the 2022 Randy Shilts Award sponsored by The Publishing Triangle Honorable Mention for the 2024 John Leo and Dana Heller Award for Best Single Work Anthology Multi Authored or Edited Book in LGBTQ Studies sponsored by the Popular Culture Association Exposes a racial hierarchy of desire that centers whiteness in queer social worlds Sexual desire often understood as personal erotic preference is frequently seen as neutral natural or inevitable Countering these commonplace assumptions Racial Erotics

shows how sexual partnering within communities of gay men is deeply embedded within larger social structures that define whiteness as desirable and normative while othering men of color In queer erotic economies this othering may take the form of sexual rejection or fetishization of men of color but C Winter Han argues that the real danger of sexual racism is that it creates a hierarchy of racial worth that extends outside of erotic encounters into the everyday lives of gay men of color In this way sexual racism perpetuates a larger project of racial erasing that equates gayness with whiteness to secure acceptance for gay white men at the expense of queers of color With vivid examples from interviews media representations and online dating sites Han highlights the creative means through which gay men of color cordoned off in spaces both gay and straight produce alternative frameworks to combat dominant narratives Racial Erotics offers a new paradigm for understanding the connection of race and queer desire demonstrating how race profoundly shapes sexual desires among men while racialized notions of desire construct beliefs about belonging
