Paul van Pelt, 2021-12-01 Once the world’s prairies grasslands steppes and tundra teemed with massive herds of game gazelle wild ass bison caribou and antelope Humans seeking to hunt these large fast moving herds devised a range of specialised traps that share many characteristics across all continents Typically consisting of guiding walls or lines of stones leading to an enclosure or trap game drives were designed for a mass killing Construction of the game drive organisation of the hunt and processing of the carcass often required group co operation and in many cases game drives have been linked to seasonal gatherings of otherwise scattered groups who may have used these occasions not only to hunt but also for social ritual and economic activities The Gazelle’s Dream Game Drives of the Old and New Worlds is the first comparative study of game drives examining this mode of hunting across three continents and a broad range of periods The book describes the hunting of bison in North America reindeer in Scandinavia antelope in Tibet and an extensive array of examples from the greater Middle East from Egypt to Armenia The Gazelle’s Dream will be of value to anyone with an interest in the history of hunting and wildlife management Perspectives on Literature and Translation Brian Nelson, Brigid Maher, 2013-10-15 This volume explores the relationship between literature and translation from three perspectives the creative dimensions of the translation process the way texts circulate between languages and the way texts are received in translation by new audiences The distinctiveness of the volume lies in the fact that it considers these fundamental aspects of literary translation together and in terms of their interconnections

Contributors examine a wide variety of texts including world classics poetry genre fiction transnational literature and life writing from around the world Both theoretical and empirical issues are covered with some contributors approaching the topic as practitioners of literary translation and others writing from within the academy Barbara Pym Robert Emmet Long,1986 Peace Within Freed,2016-03-31 Russell Novinshoar 8229 Back Cover Ibrahim prayed to his Lord O my Lord Bestow wisdom on me And join me with the righteous Grant me honorable mention on The tongue of truth among the latest generations Make me one of the inheritors of the Garden of Bliss And let me not be in disgrace on the Day men will be raised up The Day where neither wealth Nor sons will avail but only he Will prosper that brings to God A sound heart

The 18th century witnessed a new interest in African animals Research was undertaken at the Cape of Good Hope by explorers whose books manuscripts and drawings concerning mammals and birds are listed and discussed within this text This text gives details on four collections of 300 mammal and bird drawings connected with Levillant s research Many examples are illustrated The zoological contents of the material left by these seven explorers are analyzed for all mammals and birds emphasizing the history taxonomy nomenclature and zoogeography The Monthly Musical Record ,1908

naturalism and indirect techniques of late nineteenth century sculpture in favor of nonnarrative stylized and directly carved works for which archaic Greek art offered an important example Their position found implicit support in the contemporaneous theoretical writings of Emmanuel L wy Wilhelm Worringer and Adolf von Hildebrand The perceived relationship between archaic art and tradition ultimately compromised the modernist authority of archaism and made possible its absorption by academic and reactionary forces during the 1910s By the 1920s Paul Manship was identified with archaism which had become an important element in the aesthetic of public sculpture of both democratic and totalitarian societies Sculptors often employed archaizing stylizations as ends in themselves and with the intent of evoking the foundations of a classical art diminished in potency by its ubiquity and obsolescence Such stylistic archaism was not an empty formal exercise but an urgent affirmation of traditional values under siege Concurrently archaism entered the mainstream of fashionable modernity as an ingredient in the popular and commercial style known as Art Deco Both developments fueled the condemnation of archaism and of Manship its most visible exemplar by the avant garde Rather s exploration of the critical debate over archaism finally illuminates the uncertain relationship to modernism on the part of many critics and highlights the problematic positions of sculpture in the modernist discourse
