

KWAZULU-NATAL TOURISM

01. INTRODUCTION

The year 2019/2020 was one of our best performing years, where we saw millions of local and foreign visitors flock to our shores to explore the diverse range of activities and landscapes – like the sea, mountains and bush – which the province has to offer.

Strategically it means that tourism is able to fulfil its role as a catalyst for socio-economic change by employing more people, while the spin-offs have positive impacts on other industries such as the food and transport industry.

One of the major highlights ahead of the December holiday season in 2019 was the opening of Africa's longest promenade on the Durban beachfront. The addition to the existing promenade which stretches further south from uShaka Beach to the harbour entrance, makes it easier to navigate the beachfront for walkers and those who want to exercise. It also makes Durban CBD living more attractive for those who want to invest in residential property around the waterfront.

Another major event on the tourism calendar was the commencement of the building of a dedicated world-class passenger cruise terminal in Durban. The highly
