

Report Card Comments (& helpful hints)

Helpful Hints for Parent-Teacher Conferences

- sit next to the parents, not across from them
- start with a positive comment
- provide a suggestion for reinforcement or further work at home
- short, sweet and simple is the way to go (avoid educational jargon)
- LISTEN to the parents and their concerns
- end on time (commit to another conference or phone conference to avoid going over the allotted time)

Brain-Friendly Study Strategies, Grades 2-8 Amy Schwed, Janice Melichar-Utter, 2007-12-13 Presents creative research based study strategies covering all content areas and tailored to elementary and middle school students individual learning styles including auditory visual and kinesthetic modalities How to Grade for Learning Ken O'Connor, 2017-10-04 Implement standards based grading practices that help students succeed Classroom assessment and grading should help students grow and develop to their full potential but meshing traditional grading practices with students achievement on standards has been difficult and daunting Making real and lasting changes to grading practices requires both knowledge and willpower This 4th edition of the best selling How to Grade for Learning provides eight guidelines for good grading offers recommendations for practical applications and gives solid suggestions for implementing more effective grading practices Ken O'Connor presents the latest research on motivation mindset learning styles and beliefs about fairness to inform this new edition which includes Both the why's and the how to's of implementing standards based grading practices 48 educator contributions from nationally and internationally known educators authors and consultants that provide ideas and testimonials for effective assessment practices Sections on hot button issues such as academic dishonesty extra credit bonus points and homework Additional information on utilizing levels of proficiency and eliminating the use of percentages and averaging Reflective exercises and numerous tools including rubrics sample letters and case studies Techniques for managing grading more efficiently An invaluable resource for helping teachers assign grades that are accurate consistent meaningful and supportive of learning this book also makes an ideal staff development resource The NAEP 1997 Arts Report Card Hilary R. Persky, Brent A. Sandene, Janice M. Askew, 1998 The last several years have seen a growing resolve among educators and policymakers to assure the place of a solid arts education in U S schools In 1997 the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP conducted a national assessment in the arts at grade 8 The assessment included the areas of music theater and visual arts For each of these arts areas this Report Card describes the achievement of eighth graders within the general population and in various subgroups Taken with the information provided about instructional and institutional variables this report gives a context for evaluating the status of students learning in the arts The arts assessment was designed to measure the content specifications described in the arts framework for NAEP The arts have a unique capacity to integrate intellect emotions and physical skills in the creation of meaning Meaningful arts assessments need to be built around three arts processes creating performing and responding To capture these processes the arts assessment exercises included authentic tasks that assessed students knowledge and skills and constructed response and multiple choice questions that explore students abilities to describe analyze interpret and evaluate works of art in written form Data are reported in overall summaries for creating performing and responding in terms of student and school reported background variables Student results for theater are discussed in terms of teacher reported background variables as well

The major findings of the assessment are that a large percentage of grade 8 students attend schools in which music and visual arts were taught usually by specialists most students attended schools in which instruction following district or state curricula was offered in music and visual arts but not in theater or dance and most visual arts and music instruction took place in school facilities that were dedicated to that subject JH

The Oxford Handbook of Assessment Policy and Practice in Music Education, Volume 1 Timothy S. Brophy, 2019-01-02 In the music classroom instructors who hope to receive aid are required to provide data on their classroom programs Due to the lack of reliable valid large scale assessments of student achievement in music however music educators in schools that accept funds face a considerable challenge in finding a way to measure student learning in their classrooms From Australia to Taiwan to the Netherlands music teachers experience similar struggles in the quest for a definitive assessment resource that can be used by both music educators and researchers In this two volume Handbook contributors from across the globe come together to provide an authority on the assessment measurement and evaluation of student learning in music The Handbook s first volume emphasizes international and theoretical perspectives on music education assessment in the major world regions This volume also looks at technical aspects of measurement in music and outlines situations where theoretical foundations can be applied to the development of tests in music The Handbook s second volume offers a series of practical and US focused approaches to music education assessment Chapters address assessment in different types of US classrooms how to assess specific skills or requirements and how assessment can be used in tertiary and music teacher education classrooms Together both volumes of The Oxford Handbook of Assessment in Music Education pave the way forward for music educators and researchers in the field
