Federal Bureau of Investigation,1935 United States of America V. Gilmore ,1967 The American Issue ,1907 Policing Pain Kevin Revier,2025-11-11 How the medicalization of addiction during the U S opioid crisis has driven mass incarceration and mass policing in rural and deindustrialized communities The nationwide opioid public health emergency has led many advocates and public officials to call for drug policy reforms that reject traditional law and order approaches In Policing Pain Kevin Revier approaches the opioid epidemic from an abolitionist framework that seeks to treat people who use opioids not as so called criminals but as people in need of health care Based on two years of ethnographic research in Upstate New York a region highly impacted by overdoses job loss and deindustrialization Revier shows that incorporation of treatment within the criminal justice system has ultimately expanded the scope of the drug war turning individuals into treatable carceral subjects who are both medicalized and criminalized He argues that the incorporation of medical rhetoric and treatment within the criminal legal system maintains a carceral approach in rural and low income areas facing high rates of opioid overdose and economic disinvestment further entrenching the carceral state in the lives of people who use drugs Ultimately Policing Pain explores alternative strategies to promote harm reduction from an abolitionist ethic of care that advocates for people who use drugs while seeking to minimize criminal justice involvement in drug related issues Housing Urban America E. Jay Howenstine, 2017-09-04 Life liberty and the pursuit of housing an increasingly difficult quest in the contemporary urban United States where crime urban blight and continuing capital decay undercut the advantages of city living The American dream has moved to the suburbs the nightmare of our cities prompts new recognition both in the president s cabinet and the college curriculum The editors of this book have updated their acclaimed earlier collection providing new introductory articles new papers such as Discrimination in Housing Prices and Mortgage Lending A Summary Report of Current Findings from the Experimental Housing Allowance Program Alternative Mortgage Designs and Their Effectiveness in Eliminating Demand and Supply Effects on Inflation and a new bibliography of the literature Additional chapters focus on differing strategies for improved urban housing and renewal by providing concrete suggestions for distributing existing resources and allocating new funding The bibliography provides the best single guide to the current literature on housing Housing Urban America in this new edition is an important guide to those students and scholars fascinated by the essential questions of adequate housing its social costs and the source of the revenues to provide it The Washington Post Index , 1995
