of the Illinois Territory, having the right of admission into the general government as a member of the union, consistent with the Constitution of the United States, the Ordinance of Congress of 1787, and the Law of Congress "Approved, April 18th, 1818." entitled "An act to enable the people of the Illinois Territory to form a constitution and State Government, and for the admission of such state into the union on an equal footing with the original states and for other purposes;" in order to establish justice, promote the welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to themselves and their posterity, Do by their representatives in convention Ordain & Establish the following Constitution.

or Form of Government, and do mutually agree with each other to form themselves into a free and independent state by the name of the State of Illinois.

And they do hereby ratify the boundaries assigned to such state by the act of Congress aforesaid, which are as follows, to wit:—

Beginning at the mouth of the Wabash river; thence up the same and with the line of Indiana to the northwest corner of said state; thence east with the line of the same state to the middle of lake Michigan; thence north along the middle of said lake to north latitude forty and thirty minutes; then a west to the middle of the Mississippi river; and thence down along the middle of that river to its confluence with the Ohio
