My belief about myself as a learner when I entered the class was a positive one. I attended a college prep school for high school and went to Oregon State University last year. I had plenty of practice with different learning techniques and found what works well for me. I believe I'm more of a visual learner than an auditory learner. It is easier to see a powerpoint and retain the knowledge then listen to a lecture and have the same retention. Entering the class I thought I liked working in groups more than working individually on projects, but that has since changed. I think it is more beneficial to me to work alone because I can get more done. When I entered the class I believed that reading the material closer to the due date was a better idea because I may not remember what I had read if I didn't.

What I have discovered about myself, as a learner over the term is vast. I learned that I can read the material way in advance and just briefly skim over the text and remember just about everything, were as I thought reading closer was more beneficial. I also learned that working in groups really isn't my specialty. I prefer working by myself because I'm able to get a lot more done and not have to worry about other people forgetting their part of the project. I don't like having to worry about other people not following through. I also learned that looking at the daily record in advanced helped me

Individual Assignment Reflection Paper:

Facilitating with Stories Andrew Rixon, Cathryn Lloyd, 2022-09-06 This book provides a rich connection between theory and practice for those seeking to work with stories in organisational community educative or coaching settings With an international cast of contributors it charts a unique inquiry into both ethics and the facilitation philosophies for working with stories supporting educators facilitators trainers and consultants towards more effective and considered practice This book will be a valuable resource for professionals and reflective practitioners seeking to explore What informs an ethics of facilitating with stories How can we create safe spaces for story work In what ways do we need to be attuned to power when working with stories in organisations and corporations What are the unintended and ethical consequences of facilitating with stories

Rethinking Language Arts Nina Zaragoza, 2013-12-02 In Rethinking Language Arts Passion and Practice Second Edition author Nina Zaragoza uses the form of letters to her students to engage pre service teachers in reevaluating teaching practices thus bringing to life a vision of an alternative classroom environment in which the teacher is the prime mover and creative leader Zaragoza discusses and explains the need for teachers to be decision makers reflective thinkers political beings and agents of social change in order to create a positive and inclusive classroom setting This book is both a critical text that deconstructs the way language arts are traditionally taught in our schools as well as a visionary text with clear no nonsense directions on how to provide much needed change in our schools

Portfolio Building Activities in Social Media Karen Freberg, 2021-08-23 Featuring 125 real world activities across various social media platforms Portfolio Building Activities in Social Media shows students how to communicate on social media professionally and strategically by giving them hands on experiences with real world challenges From brand analyses to budget assignments to pitch activities this practical exercise guide offers students multiple opportunities to create and build their portfolio of work Designed to be used with Freberg's Social Media for Strategic Communication but flexible enough to bundle with any PR textbook these exercises are useful to any professor looking to incorporate more activities around social media and digital brand development

School Parent Collaboration Dr Cordelia Azumi Yates, 2025-05-20 School Parent Collaboration An Approach to Understanding the Elements of Parents Rights and Working with Students from Diverse Backgrounds is an academic book written for Special Education and General Education courses that is focused on School Parent Collaboration The book targets the skills that teachers require to work successfully with parents from diverse cultural backgrounds and covers parents rights in the United States of America Most importantly the book is a time saver for instructors as it covers many life application exercises and scenarios for preservice teachers to work on in the process of the course to deepen their understanding of the concepts in each of the chapters Read this easy to use book that focuses only on the relevant concepts that teachers require to work with their students and parents About the Author Dr Cordelia Azumi Yates is an Assistant Professor of Education at the Sharon Walker School of Education Morningside University Sioux City Iowa State Before becoming a University Professor she taught at various grade levels in the public school as a special education teacher She has taught in Elementary Middle High and continuation schools Then she became a Special Education Coordinator a Special Education Administrator a Learning Director and then currently an Assistant Professor of Education in the University She is happily married with five children Dr Yates loves to watch her students at the University play basketball and derive joy in researching different academic works to improve the quality of teacher education Promoting Service Leadership

Qualities in University Students Daniel T.L. Shek,Po Chung,2015-08-20 This book outlines the development of service leadership curricula programs and materials designed for university students in Hong Kong In addition it includes evaluation studies and specific service leadership programs making it a pioneering book that integrates service leadership and student wellbeing for Chinese university students In view of the transformation of industries resulting in shifts from manufacturing economies to service economies the book takes a holistic approach to leadership development focusing on three basic components of effective service leadership that are closely related to student wellbeing leadership competencies such as emotional intelligence and resilience moral character and a caring disposition This approach represents a move away from literature that emphasizes the elite leadership model assuming that leadership is the privilege of a talented few By extension it argues that the promotion of service leadership qualities is a good strategy for promoting student wellness The individual chapters are extended versions of papers presented at the International Conference on Service Leadership Education for University Students Experience in Hong Kong which was held in May 2014 The book offers a valuable contribution to Chinese and global academic literature on service leadership and will benefit researchers and educators alike
