National Bureau of Standards, 1952 Levinas and the Torah Richard I. Sugarman, 2019-08-23 The French philosopher Emmanuel Levinas 1906-95 was one of the most original Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century This book interprets the Hebrew Bible through the lens of Levinas's religious philosophy Richard I Sugarman examines the Pentateuch using a phenomenological approach drawing on both Levinas's philosophical and Jewish writings Sugarman puts Levinas in conversation with biblical commentators both classical and modern including Rashi Maimonides Sforso Hirsch and Soloveitchik He particularly highlights Levinas's work on the Talmud and the Holocaust Levinas's reading is situated against the background of a renewed understanding of such phenomena as covenant promise different modalities of time and justice The volume is organized to reflect the fifty-four portions of the Torah read during the Jewish liturgical year A preface provides an overview of Levinas's life approach and place in contemporary Jewish thought The reader emerges with a deeper understanding of both the Torah and the philosophy of a key Jewish thinker English Mechanic and World of Science, 1898 The Era of the Individual Alain Renaut, 2000 In The Era of the Individual the author explores the most salient feature of post-structuralism the elimination of the human subject At the root of this thinking lies the belief that humans cannot know or control their basic natures a premise that led to Heidegger's distrust of an individualistic capitalist modern society and that allied him briefly with Hitler's National Socialist Party While acknowledging some of Heidegger's misgivings toward modernity as legitimate Renaut argues that it is nevertheless wrong to equate modernity with the triumph of individualism Here he distinguishes between individualism and subjectivity and by offering a history of the two powerfully redirects the course of current thinking away from potentially dangerous reductionist views of humanity DSSSB PGT Physics Exam Prep Book (English Edition) : Post Graduate Teacher (Concerned Subject - Section B) - 10 Practice Tests EduGorilla Prep Experts, Best Selling Book in English Edition for DSSSB PGT Physics Exam Concerned Subject with objective type questions as per the latest syllabus given by the Delhi Subordinate Services Selection Board DSSSB Compare your performance with other students using Smart Answer Sheets in EduGorilla's DSSSB PGT Physics Exam

Landscape, Literature and English Religious Culture, 1660-1800 R. Mayhew, 2004-03-15 Landscape Literature and English Religious Culture 1660 1800 offers a powerful revisionist account of the intellectual significance of landscape descriptions during the long Eighteenth century Landscape has long been a major arena for debate about the nature of Eighteenth century English culture this book surveys those debates and offers a provocative new account Mayhew shows that describing landscape was a religiously contested practice and that different theological positions led differing authors to different descriptive approaches Landscape description then shows English intellectual life still in the grips of a Christian and classical mentality in the long Eighteenth century English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1892
