Informational Texts in Pre-Kindergarten through Grade-Three Classrooms Elaine M. Bukowiecki, Marlene P. Correia, 2016-11-14 This book presents a myriad of instructional techniques and critical literacy strategies while serving as a professional resource for inservice and preservice primary grade teachers as they include informational texts in their classrooms. In each of the nine chapters, there is a particular topic that guides the focus of the chapter. These themes include a rationale for incorporating informational texts in the primary grade classroom, a discussion of the unique features of informational texts, the selection of high-quality informational materials for primary readers, critical literacy, prereading, during reading, and post-reading strategies, the writing of informational texts, and inquiry projects for the primary classroom. This book also contains a preface, an introduction, and an afterword in which the controversy regarding the Common Core State Standards is discussed. Unique features of each chapter are specific standards reflecting the Common Core State Standards, strategies for all students to be successful with the Standards, transcriptions of lessons from primary grade classrooms, examples of pupils' work as they interact with informational materials, and a Give It a Try section where a lesson plan or a pedagogical suggestion is presented for the reader to try out in his/her own classroom.
