- Below Point 2: what was the impact like during 1990s worldwide?
15. Disappearing Palace - Interpretation: tried to make her characterisation that meant the conflict of her inner world (a support, safety) of the loneliness/ isolation (being) that caused her inner collapse, which had a very characterological beauty. One of the other themes was the disappearance of the Singapore culture.
16. Real disappearing palace - Interpretation: is the disappearance of her own and perception of the whole world (structure)
17. Interpretation seems to be: while Singapore is a paradise for technology/ progress/ culture, there is a different side, even important being the same (harmony)
18. Interpretation would mean happiness through death, though there are real problems, but a reality where things about them are not there (disappearance of reality)
19. Real disappearing palace - Interpretation: is more or less, just Singapore and Singaporeans about your Singapore
20. In 1970s, the Singapore Republic decided to use Singaporean language to reduce the problems of population, giving their people more chance. This led to the Singapore language class which was the main theme.
