Istanbul Orhan Pamuk E :

My Name Is Red Orhan Pamuk, 2010-11-02 One of the Nobel Prize winner's best loved novels in a special edition featuring an introduction by the author and a chronology of Islamic and Western art history that provides additional context for this dazzling story of a murdered artist in sixteenth century Istanbul Nobel Prize winner Orhan Pamuk's My Name Is Red set amid the artistic splendor and religious intrigue of sixteenth century Istanbul is a fantastical story of love and murder propelled by the philosophical puzzle at its core The Ottoman sultan has commissioned the most acclaimed artists in the land to create a great book celebrating the glories of his realm but he wants them to illuminate it in the European style Because there are those who believe art that imitates the real is an affront to Islam the project must be kept secret Panic and scandal erupt when one of the chosen miniaturists disappears along with a crucial page of the manuscript the surviving artists bitter rivals variously motivated by pride greed faith and love are all under suspicion of murder and the only clue to the mystery lies in the half finished illustrations themselves Logoteunison: Literary Easternization in Orhan Pamuk's Works Saman Hashemipour, 2019-10-31 This book explores the enduring European and American interest in literary works portraying Eastern themes and perspectives It examines how literary Easternization termed Logoteunison manifests in Western literary works that reflect embody or deploy Eastern values or concepts or else ape mimic parody or pay homage to various Eastern and especially Persian masterpieces Such repurposing or appropriation is frequently powered by features from the postmodern toolkit intertextuality metafiction fragmentation The novelist Orhan Pamuk has been influenced arguably unwittingly by literary Easternization In his Western style works Pamuk channels Eastern values creating texts nevertheless in the Western mold and primarily aimed at Western readers Pamuk uses Istanbul the writer's birthplace a city between two worlds a halfway land binding together Asia and Europe both as a physical setting and to symbolically mediate Eastern and Western worldviews This title has a threefold purpose by establishing a theoretical and contextual background for Eastern masterpieces and forming a distinctive review of Eastern culture as filtered through Pamuk's works it suggests a new theory in literary criticism one which aims to adopt a novel philosophical approach to the study of literary Easternization Students of comparative and Turkish literature will find in this volume detailed background information about Turkish Persian and Arabic masterpieces as well as their significant cultural correspondences and affinities especially regarding their employment of Sufi themes Any student or scholar interested in the postmodern cross fertilization of Middle Eastern and Western literature will find this work fascinating and rewarding Istanbul Orhan Pamuk, 2006-12-05 From the Nobel Prize winner and acclaimed author of My Name is Red comes a portrait of Istanbul by its foremost writer revealing the melancholy that comes of living amid the ruins of a lost empire Delightful profound marvelously original Pamuk tells the story of the city through the eyes of memory The Washington Post Book World A shimmering evocation by turns intimate and panoramic of one of the world's great cities by its foremost writer Orhan Pamuk was born in Istanbul and still lives in the family apartment building where his mother first held him in her arms His portrait of his city is thus also a self portrait refracted by memory and the melancholy or h z n that all Istanbul share With cinematic fluidity Pamuk moves from his glamorous unhappy parents to the gorgeous decrepit mansions overlooking the Bosphorus from the dawning of his self consciousness to the writers and painters both Turkish and foreign who would shape his consciousness of his city Like Joyce s Dublin and Borges Buenos Aires Pamuk s Istanbul is a triumphant encounter of place and sensibility beautifully written and immensely moving Displacing Fictions of Orhan Pamuk Hande Gürses,2023-11-21 Displacing Fictions of Orhan Pamuk Beyond the Bridge questions the prevailing relevance and violence of the bridge metaphor for literature through new readings of Orhan Pamuk This book argues that despite its association with connection dialogue and reconciliation the bridge is an inherently violent structure that controls movement by regulating it Drawing on deconstruction and Derrida the author argues for a rethinking of the intrinsic connection between the bridge and the writings of Orhan Pamuk Exploring Pamuk s significance as an author of the world literature canon this book investigates the history and theory of the discipline as a bridge Identifying new metaphors in Pamuk s work Hande G rses shows the political potential of moving beyond the bridge As people lands and ideas keep moving Displacing Fictions of Orhan Pamuk argues for an urgent need for new metaphors to understand and represent the realities of our contemporary world Spaces of Longing and Belonging ,2019-07-01 Spaces of Longing and Belonging offers the reader theoretical and interpretative studies of spatiality centered on a variety of literary and cultural contexts It brings new and complementary insights to bear on creative uses of spatiality in artistic texts and generally into the field of spatiality as a cultural phenomenon especially although not exclusively in terms of literary space Ranging over questions of aesthetics politics sociohistorical concerns issues of postcoloniality transculturality ecology and features of interpersonal spaces among others the essays provide a considerable collection of innovative pieces of scholarship on important questions relating to literary spatiality generally as well as detailed analyses of particular works and authors The volume includes ground breaking theoretical investigations of crucial dimensions of spatiality in a context of increased global awareness Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond Tombul, Işıl,Sarı, Gülşah,2021-05-28 Orientalism is about much more than just information gathered about the East within its general postcolonial period In this period orientalism is a Western discourse that dominated and shaped the view of the East There is otherization in the way the West has historically looked at the East and within the information presented about it These original stories of travelers in the past and previous telling about the East are facing a reconstruction through modern types of media Cinema television news newspaper magazine internet social media photography literature and more are transforming the way the East is presented and viewed Under the headings of post orientalism neo orientalism or self orientalism these new orientalist forms of work in combination with both new and traditional media are redefining orientalism in the media and beyond The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond shows how both new media and traditional media deal with orientalism today through the presentation of gender race religion and culture that make up orientalist theory The chapters focus on how orientalism is presented in the media cinema TV photography and more This book is ideal for communications theorists media analysts practitioners researchers academicians and students working in fields that include mass media communications film studies ethnic studies history sociology and cultural studies Internationalism and the New Turkey Erik Sjöberg,2022-07-06 This book examines international education in Turkey after World War I In this period a movement for peace and international education among American educators emerged This effort however had to be reconciled with the nationalist projects of new nation states emerging from the war In the case of the Near East that meant coming to terms with the radically nationalist modernization project of Kemal Atatürk's Turkish Republic Using the case of Robert College an American educational institution in Istanbul which aimed to foster a future local elite of a multi ethnic and multi religious student body the book sheds light on the negotiation between two conceptions of modernity as represented by American internationalist ideals and the tenets of Kemalism the Westernizing yet deeply ethnocentric national ideology of post 1923 Turkey Based on recently declassified archival sources this study addresses the educational intentions and strategies for adjustment of college faculty It also offers a rare insight into the mindset of young students attempting to make sense of what internationalism and religious ethnic and national identity meant in the Ottoman past and in the new republican Turkey Focusing on Robert College and the forgotten case of its dean and social studies instructor Dr Edgar Jacob Fisher it addresses the little researched field of internationalism and peace education in interwar Turkey Routledge
