South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention, military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment, gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil-military relations of countries around the world. Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016

Supporting Personalized Learning and Students' Skill Development With AI Khaldi, Mohamed, 2025-03-05 The integration of artificial intelligence (AI) into education has the potential to fundamentally change pedagogical practices with a positive impact on all aspects of teaching and learning. It is possible to design personalized learning paths for each learner, including those with special needs or who speak different languages, by adjusting the content and pace according to their strengths and weaknesses. AI tools such as virtual assistants and interactive educational applications can give immediate feedback to learners, which is of paramount importance to keep them engaged and encourage continuous learning. Similarly, teachers can view AI-based data analytics and recommendations to improve their teaching methods and adapt their strategies in real time. Supporting Personalized Learning and Students' Skill Development With AI offers an in-depth exploration of how to integrate AI technology into pedagogical practice to revolutionize education by exploring all aspects of AI in education, from intelligent tutoring systems that tailor lessons to the needs of each learner to automating administrative tasks that save teachers time. While addressing the ethical and practical challenges of this transformation, it highlights the urgent need to equip educators with the skills they need to benefit from AI. Covering topics such as autonomous learning, emotion detection and digital literacy, this book is an excellent resource for teachers, school administrators, educational decision makers, computer developers, professionals, scholars, academicians, researchers and more. MOS 31V Tactical Communications Systems Operator/mechanic Skill with issues of mental health and spirituality It will also be invaluable to academics and students of Jungian psychology theology philosophy and history interested in war migration and the impact of extreme forms of adversity The Disruptive Power of Online Education Andreas Altmann,Bernd Ebersberger,Claudia Mössenlechner,Desiree Wieser,2018-11-22 This book explores how higher education institutions across the globe respond to the disruptive changes triggered by online technologies Contributions address transformations regarding program design business models and pedagogical interventions in a digital teaching environment Indian Business in the Twentieth Century Swapnesh K. Masrani,Carlo J. Morelli,Amiya K. Bagchi,2022-09-29 This book uses a combination of business history and political economy to chart the development of Indian business organisation from independence in 1947 through to the twenty first century The Indian economy has undergone a dramatic transformation to become one of the leading global economies of the twenty first century After ending colonialisation and gaining independence in 1947 the economy moved from a reliance on the export of raw materials to an era of state promoted development followed by an era of liberalisation and integration in the world economy by the close of the twentieth century This book looks at traditional industries such as textiles to industries of the second and third industrial revolution ranging from chemicals and oils to telecommunications This book highlights how Indian businesses proved capable of importing both new managerial ideas and organisational developments while adapting them to the specific domestic context The case studies underline the use of human resource management in the post colonial indianisation of foreign owned multinationals and the rise of new business organisation and management training in the development of Indian multinational organisations such as Tata Sons The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Business History Springer Handbook of Augmented Reality Andrew Yeh Ching Nee,Soh Khim Ong,2023-01-01 The Springer Handbook of Augmented Reality presents a comprehensive and authoritative guide to augmented reality AR technology its numerous applications and its intersection with emerging technologies This book traces the history of AR from its early development discussing the fundamentals of AR and its associated science The handbook begins by presenting the development of AR over the last few years mentioning the key pioneers and important milestones It then moves to the fundamentals and principles of AR such as photogrammetry optics motion and objects tracking and marker based and marker less registration The book discusses both software toolkits and techniques and hardware related to AR before presenting the applications of AR This includes both end user applications like education and cultural heritage and professional applications within engineering fields medicine and architecture amongst others The book concludes with the convergence of AR with other emerging technologies such as Industrial Internet of Things and Digital Twins The handbook presents a comprehensive reference on AR technology from an academic industrial and commercial perspective making it an invaluable resource for audiences from a variety of backgrounds European Total Defence Gjermund Forfang Rongved,2025-03-11 This book analyses the origins experiences and challenges of total defence in Europe and comprises a broad spectrum of national case studies as well as one international organisation NATO The topic of total defence has been brought to the fore by deglobalisation augmented international tension the US pivot to Asia grey zone threats Covid 19 and not least by the increased Russian threat during the 2010s which culminated in the invasion of Ukraine in 2022 The analysis here is based on an in depth analysis of the four major Nordic countries the Baltic countries Poland Ukraine Switzerland and the Netherlands as well as a perspective from NATO itself This volume argues that although the activity that we describe as total defence has many labels and various expressions which follow from each country s own history geopolitical setting and strategic culture some aspects of it are to be found in most countries This is because all countries at least to some extent will need their armed forces to rely on civil society in a crisis however it is a long way from this to a full fledged total defence concept With continued international tension the need to build resilient societies and the European need to take more responsibility for its own security in a cost efficient way this book argues that we should expect total defence to gain importance in the 21st century This book will be of much interest to students of security studies defence studies European politics and International Relations in general

The Oxford Handbook of Higher Education in the Asia-Pacific Region
Devesh Kapur,Lily Kong,Florence Lo,David M. Malone,2023-01-20

Since the turn of the millennium it has become clear that the Asia Pacific Region is economically the fastest growing continent in the world and is likely to remain so for some time despite the setbacks of the COVID 19 pandemic Asia Pacific s share of the world s Gross Domestic Product GDP doubled from 15 per cent to 30 per cent between 1970 and 2017 and is projected to account for half of global GDP by 2050 With South East and South Asia also growing rapidly with over half the world s population and three of the world s five largest economies Asia is soon poised to home half of the world s middle class a class that is both the driver and the product of higher education The quality of a country s system of higher education may be seen both as a gauge of its current level of national development as well as of its future economic prospects It is therefore natural that the putative Asian Century should generate interest in the region s higher education systems which on the one hand share common characteristics a fixation with credentials and engineering high technology especially among male students and business degrees while at the same time are also highly differentiated not only across countries but also within As such a better understanding of higher education achievements failings potential and structural limitations in the Asia Pacific Region is imperative This handbook presents a number of significant country case studies and documents cross cutting trends relating to among other things the trilemma faced by governments juggling competing claims of access accessible cost and quality the balance between teaching and research the links between labour markets demand and higher education supply preferred fields of study and their consequences the rise of the research university in Asia the lure of institutions of international reputation within the region new education technologies and their effects and trends in government policy within the wider region and sub regions
