My Dog Terry And Other Animal Poems English Edition:

Speaking of Animals Terry Caesar, 2009 Speaking of Animals consists of a linked series of thirteen essays about subjects ranging from deciding to castrate a dog evaluating recent dog memoirs observing animals in Spain reading about the training of big cats watching Animal Planet and being unable to kill a racoon in Texas So often personal even while analyzing novels such as Water for Elephants or movies such as Giant or Into the Wild the essays offer both an implicit critique and a continuation of recent discursive trends in animal studies whose language is too haplessly abstracted from the animals in whose name we humans strive to speak as well as narrate

Spanning diverse genres and encompassing a rich tapestry of styles, this anthology traverses the realms of festive narratives from poignant stories of redemption and magical encounters to timeless carols that resonate with universal joy. Notable narratives weave through the pages, inviting readers into a world where the contrasts of human experience converge during the most wonderful time of the year. From traditional celebrations to imaginative tales, this collection showcases the enduring charm and diversity of Christmas literature, carefully curated to incite both reflection and delight. The anthology features an impressive array of authors, from literary titans like Dickens, Twain, and Alcott to European luminaries such as Dostoevsky and Tolstoy. These authors, along with an expansive roster of both celebrated and obscure writers from various eras, lend their unique voices to this collection, enriching its exploration of Christmas themes. Culled from a wide historical spectrum, the works align with the cultural and literary currents that have shaped our understanding and celebration of Christmas, offering insights into societal values and personal tribulations alike. Readers are invited to explore Santa's Library not merely as a collection of Christmas-themed writings but as a profound exploration into the collective human experience as manifested through global cultures and literary expressions. It provides an unparalleled opportunity to navigate the breadth of Christmas storytelling, glean insights and inspiration from myriad perspectives. An educational and enriching experience awaits, promising to spark dialogue and deepen appreciation for the diversity of tradition celebrated within these pages.

Rhythm and Weep Anthony Marinelli, 2013-12-26 The late 80s is the time period pictured where a student in the depth studies of psychology philosophy invited on a night out by a Hong Kong exchange student learns of the abuse of a young runaway from the small town of Welland Yvonne Levesque. She sought refuge from a mysterious past and abusive situation yet her savior seems more troubled and abusive than her past. T f is Yvonne's savior and is mired in a troubled past and a family of abuse as well and their life soon unravels in a strange climax which will leave the reader spellbound to its final mystery. The student at the university trained interested in psychology philosophy hears a confession from the Lovely Yvette a confession of abuse at the hands from him who she sought help and refuge and soon turns to the friend turned investigator and eventual secret admirer Terry as a last straw for help in the small town of Welland. The sleuthing abilities of the undergraduate Terry seem unrivalled and he soon falls for the young Yvonne, tries to extricate her from the machinations of her husband Tim Fong and his family and social milieu, he enters on the scene and must deal with the skeletons in his past and the shifting mad world of these fellow small town travelers. The story rather than being told from the point of view of time is brought to vivid life from several vantage points of time many years later from Toronto where Terry is married and his life fractures and falls apart and loses his family to Vancouver Hong Kong as he tries to piece together the abuse and PICTURE of the young YVONNE the tale and investigation is not only a help but to understand her and paint her as she appears in this harrowing tale The novel is told in the first person by Terry who tries to paint her picture and we must judge for ourselves through his poems and coming to terms with his own life and that of his characters and his search for Yvette in body and also to grasp her essence whether he has succeeded His poems throughout are expressive of his state of mind
