From Slave Cabins to the White House Koritha Mitchell,2020-08-31 Koritha Mitchell analyzes canonical texts by and about African American women to lay bare the hostility these women face as they invest in traditional domesticity Instead of the respectability and safety granted white homemakers black women endure pejorative labels racist governmental policies attacks on their citizenship and aggression meant to keep them in their place Tracing how African Americans define and redefine success in a nation determined to deprive them of it Mitchell plumbs the works of Frances Harper Zora Neale Hurston Lorraine Hansberry Toni Morrison Michelle Obama and others These artists honor black homes from slavery and post emancipation through the Civil Rights era to post racial America Mitchell follows black families asserting their citizenship in domestic settings while the larger society and culture marginalize and attack them not because they are deviants or failures but because they meet American standards Powerful and provocative From Slave Cabins to the White House illuminates the links between African American women s homemaking and citizenship in history and across literature Laboring Women Jennifer L. Morgan, 2011-09-12 When black women were brought from Africa to the New World as slave laborers their value was determined by their ability to work as well as their potential to bear children who by law would become the enslaved property of the mother's master In Laboring Women Reproduction and Gender in New World Slavery Jennifer L. Morgan examines for the first time how African women's labor in both senses became intertwined in the English colonies Beginning with the ideological foundations of racial slavery in early modern Europe Laboring Women traverses the Atlantic exploring the social and cultural lives of women in West Africa slaveowners expectations for reproductive labor and women's lives as workers and mothers under colonial slavery Challenging conventional wisdom Morgan reveals how expectations regarding gender and reproduction were central to racial ideologies the organization of slave labor and the nature of slave community and resistance Taking into consideration the heritage of Africans prior to enslavement and the cultural logic of values and practices recreated under the duress of slavery she examines how women's gender identity was defined by their shared experiences as agricultural laborers and mothers and shows how given these distinctions their situation differed considerably from that of enslaved men Telling her story through the arc of African women's actual lives from West Africa to the experience of the Middle Passage to life on the plantations she offers a thoughtful look at the ways women's reproductive experience shaped their roles in communities and helped them resist some of the more egregious effects of slave life Presenting a highly original theoretically grounded view of reproduction and labor as the twin pillars of female exploitation in slavery Laboring Women is a distinctive contribution to the literature of slavery and the history of women The Dramatic Works George Farquhar, 1892 The Dramatic Works of George Farquhar

The twin-rivals. The recruiting officer. The beaux-stratagem George Farquhar, 1892 The Beaux' Stratagem George Farquhar, 2014-06-26 It attests to Farquhar's stature as a man that he composed this warm hearted and vibrant play while he was dying Like The Recruiting Officer the play is set in a provincial town and its plot is slight Aimwell and Archer two impecunious London gentlemen arrive in Lichfield looking for an heiress to marry Aimwell posing as his elder brother falls in love with his prey Dorinda and confesses his imposture to her his man servant Archer arouses the wistful interest of the unhappily married Mrs Sullen The introduction to this edition discusses the play for its theatrical merits and argues that it dramatises the ills of marriage in early modern England shown by Farquhar to be more injurious to the wife than to the husband and calls for a reform of the divorce laws The Beaux-stratagem. A Comedy George Farquhar, 1898 The Beaux-stratagem George Farquhar, 1898 The beaux-stratagem. Ed. with a preface and notes by H.M. Fitzgibbon George Farquhar, 1898 The Story of the Country House Clive Aslet, 2021-09-14 The fascinating story of the evolution of the country house in Britain from its Roman precursors to the present The Story of the Country House is an authoritative and vivid account of the British country house exploring how they have evolved with the changing political and economic landscape Clive Aslet reveals the captivating stories behind individual houses their architects and occupants and paints a vivid picture of the wider context in which the country house in Britain flourished and subsequently fell into decline before enjoying a renaissance in the twenty first century The genesis style and purpose of architectural masterpieces such as Hardwick Hall Hatfield House and Chatsworth are explored alongside the numerous country houses lost to war and economic decline We also meet a cavalcade of characters owners with all their dynastic obsessions and diverse sources of wealth and architects such as Inigo Jones Sir John Vanbrugh Robert Adam Sir John Soane and A W N Pugin who dazzled or in some cases outraged their contemporaries The Story of the Country House takes a fresh look at this enduringly popular building type exploring why it continues to hold such fascination for us today The Players ,1860
