Cinesexuality Patricia MacCormack, 2016-05-23 Cinesexuality explores the queerness of cinema spectatorship arguing that cinema spectatorship represents a unique encounter of desire pleasure and perversion beyond dialectics of subject object and image meaning an extraordinary cinesexual relationship that encompasses each event of cinema spectatorship in excess of gender hetero or homosexuality encouraging all spectators to challenge traditional notions of what elicits pleasure and constitutes desiring subjectivity Through a variety of cinematic examples including abstract film extreme films and films which present perverse sexuality and corporeal reconfiguration Cinesexuality encourages a radical shift to spectatorship as itself inherently queer beyond what is watched and who watches Film as its own form of philosophy invokes spectatorship thought as an ethics of desire Original exciting and theoretically sophisticated focusing on continental philosophy particularly Guattari Deleuze Blanchot Foucault Lyotard Irigaray and Serres the book will be of interest to scholars and students of queer gender and feminist studies film and aesthetics theory cultural studies media and communication post structural theory and contemporary philosophical thought Magic, Witchcraft and the Otherworld Susan Greenwood, 2020-08-02 Anthropology s

long and complex relationship to magic has been strongly influenced by western science and notions of rationality This book takes a refreshing new look at modern magic as practised by contemporary Pagans in Britain It focuses on what Pagans see as the essence of magic a communication with an otherworldly reality Examining issues of identity gender and morality the author argues that the otherworld forms a central defining characteristic of magical practice Integrating an experiential ethnographic approach with an analysis of magic this book asks penetrating questions about the nature of otherworldly knowledge and argues that our scientific frameworks need re envisioning It is unique in providing an insider s view of how magic is practised in contemporary western culture Thinking the Event François Raffoul, 2020-05-05 The author of The Origins of Responsibility presents a major contribution to philosophical scholarship on the very idea of the event Edward S Casey author of The World on Edge In Thinking the Event continental philosopher François Raffoul explores the question of what constitutes an event as an event not what happens or why it happens but what happening means If it s true that nothing happens without a reason as Leibniz famously posited then does this principle of reason have a reason Bringing together philosophical insights from Martin Heidegger Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy and Jean Luc Marion Raffoul shows how the event in its disruptive unpredictability always exceeds causality subjectivity and reason He then goes on to examine the inappropriability of this pure event and how this inappropriability may inform ethical and political considerations In the wake of the exhaustion of traditional metaphysics the notion of the event comes to the fore with key implications for philosophy ontology ethics and theories of selfhood Raffoul s Thinking the Event is essential reading on this fascinating topic

Jacques Derrida's Ghost David Appelbaum, 2009-07-01 A spirited reading of Derrida s view of ethics as transcendental and performative Regard for the Other E. S. Burt, 2009 This work focuses on autothanatography the writing of one s death The study also argues that autobiography is aporetic not or not only a matter of a subject strategizing with language to produce an exemplary identity but a matter also of its responding to an exorbitant call to its death The Long Space

Peter Hitchcock,2009-12-01 The resurgence of world literature as a category of study seems to coincide with what we understand as globalization but how does postcolonial writing fit into this picture Beyond the content of this novel or that what elements of postcolonial fiction might challenge the assumption that its main aim is to circulate native information globally The Long Space provides a fresh look at the importance of postcolonial writing by examining how it articulates history and place both in content and form Not only does it offer a new theoretical model for understanding decolonization s impact on duration in writing but through a series of case studies of Guyanese Somali Indonesian and Algerian writers it urges a more protracted engagement with time and space in postcolonial narrative Although each writer Wilson Harris Nuruddin Farah Pramodya Ananta Toer and Assia Djebar explores a unique understanding of postcoloniality each also makes a more general assertion about the difference of time and space in decolonization Taken together they herald a transnationalism beyond the contaminated coordinates of globalization as currently construed No Wrinkles on the Soul

Richard L. Morgan,2013-03-08 From No Use Denying It to Keeping the Spirit Renewed Dick Morgan here offers six themes right on target for older adults The sixty two meditations in No Wrinkles on the Soul are ideal for individual or small group devotions Each meditation presents a suggested Scripture reading a printed Bible verse and a reading for reflection These meditations relate honestly to the variety of situations in which older adults may find themselves living in their own home in a retirement center in a nursing home or in the home of a relative Modernism and Nostalgia T. Clewell,2013-07-29 This book addresses the multiple meanings of nostalgia in the literature of the period Whether depicted as an emotion remembrance or fixation these essays demonstrate that the nostalgic impulse reveals how deeply rooted in the damaged the old and the vanishing were the variety of efforts to imagine and produce the new the distinctly modern Evolution's Way

Todd F. Ekof,2020-04-01 We are living in a time of exponential changes due to the rapid evolution of technology far outpacing that of our biology Extraordinary as they seem however these changes are expressions of the natural evolutionary processes that have been occurring since the Universe began Evolution s Way shows us how this all pervasive force shapes and moves the Universe and everything within it from the first stars to the first cells from humans to their machines toward increasingly greater states of complexity awareness and unity As nature s toolmakers moreover humanity and its machines have brought the entire Universe to a sudden point of transformation that s about to change everything Humans like all creatures are creatures of habit which means sudden changes can feel threatening to us But Evolution s Way helps sooth our nerves by elucidating the spiritual dimensions of evolution while reminding us we too are an intricate and beautiful part of nature s drive toward transcendence Being Called to Care ,1994-03-31 Although the major part of this book focuses on rethinking nursing education the essence of this book the notion of being called to care is of relevance to all human service professionals who are responsible for ministering to the needs of others The authors set the context for what it means to be called to care and explore ways of responding to a call The three themes of vulnerability authenticity and structure are presented as foundational Using a hermeneutic interpretive approach to inquiry insights are presented to uncover ways of conceptualizing and practicing curriculum through processes that join persons together in dialogue and reflection
