

My family

My family has three people: my father, my mother and me. I am the only daughter in my family. I haven't any brothers. My father is a lecturer in a college. He is 48 years old. He has been teaching English for over 20 years. He is an experienced teacher. He has already written 40 books. My mother works at the same school with my father. She is 43 years old. She is a cheerful and pretty person. As for me, I am a pupil at a high school in the province now. I am a student. My dream is to be an English teacher like my parents. I hope that my dream will come true in a near future.

Giardina, 2024-05-27 In Qualitative Inquiry in the Present Tense contributors engage with epistemological and philosophical questions concerning the conduct of qualitative inquiry in the present moment and especially as it relates to various understandings of writing in as inquiry. Topics addressed include methodological processes, questions of narrative uprootedness, relational inquiry, Indigenous ethico-onto-epistemologies, storytelling and transformative writing forms and practices. This is a messy, often unruly collection in the best way possible of disparate ideas strung tightly together by literal and metaphorical questions of the research act of writing. Contributors from the United States, Australia, Canada, England, and Scotland imaginatively conceive of new qualitative futures and how we might write ourselves there. This evocative new book is a must read for faculty and students alike who are interested in and engaged with questions and ideas oriented toward understanding our current historical present in qualitative research, a moment in which the field is perpetually in motion or in flux with new theories, methods, and orientations arising, competing, and even contradicting one another. Hecho en Tejas Dagoberto Gilb, 2008-04-30 Gilb has created more than a literary anthology; this is a mosaic of the cultural and historical stories of Texas. Mexican writers, musicians, and artists. Contending with Gun Violence in the English Language Classroom Shelly Shaffer, Gretchen Rumohr-Voskuil, Steven Bickmore, 2018-11-13 Utilizing experiences and expertise from English educators, young adult literature authors, classroom teachers, and mental health professionals, this book considers how secondary English Language Arts can address school gun violence. Curated by field experts, contributions to this volume pay special attention to how a school's culture and climate affect how teachers and students communicate around difficult topics that are embedded in the curriculum but not directly addressed. As the first book that helps teachers and teacher educators to grapple with the topic of school violence specifically in the English education classroom, this book promotes young adult literature and writing activities that address timely and unfortunately recurring events. Not in My Family Roger Frie, 2017-03-06 Winner of the 2018 Western Canada Jewish Book Award, Winner of the 2017 Canadian Jewish Literary Award. Even as the Holocaust grows more distant with the passing of time, its traumas call out to be known and understood. What is remembered, what has been imparted through German heritage, and what has been forgotten. Can familiar family stories be transformed into an understanding of the Holocaust's forbidding reality? Author Roger Frie is uniquely positioned to answer these questions. As the son of Germans who were children during World War II and with grandparents who were participants in the War, he uses the history of his family as a guide to explore the psychological and moral implications of memory against the backdrop of one of humanity's darkest periods. From his perspective of a life lived across German and Jewish contexts, Frie explores what it means to discover the legacy of a Nazi past. Beginning with the narrative of his grandfather, he shows how the transfer of memory from one German generation to the next keeps the Holocaust at bay. Not in My Family is rich with poignant illustration Frie beautifully combines his own story with the stories of others perpetrators and survivors and the generations that came after As a practicing psychotherapist he also draws on his own experience of working with patients whose lives have been directly and indirectly shaped by the Holocaust Throughout Frie proceeds with a level of frankness and honesty that invites readers to reflect on their own histories and to understand the lasting effects of historical traumas into the present
