Lucian Blaga: Selected Philosophical Extracts R. T Allen, Angela Botez, Henrieta Anişoara Şerban, 2018-04-15 After the Editor's General Introduction the extracts include central elements of Blaga's metaphysics general epistemology philosophies of science history religion language and especially metaphor the experience of space and time art and finally culture which includes all of them especially the presence in all of style and distinctive ways of practising them All these extracts are linked by his general epistemology especially his distinction between two types of knowledge paradisiac or Type 1 which is that of everyday awareness and the current methods concepts and presuppositions of the sciences of nature and humanity plus mathematics and philosophy and accumulates in plus knowledge and resolves problems in standard ways and

Luciferican or Type 2 which opens up the mysteries of new realms of reality which do not fit the current methods concepts and presuppositions and so results in minus knowledge the awareness that there are things which at the moment we cannot understand For these mysteries new methods concepts and presuppositions are required which abyssal categories can supply ones below those we normally employ and may be aware of It is part of man s role in the cosmos to reveal such mysteries They are also linked by Blaga s awareness of historical changes especially dogmatic aeons in which a prevailing framework of categories etc guides knowledge and research and ones in which Type 2 knowledge dominates and new frameworks are eventually created Each extract has its own Introduction which places it in the context of the rest of his interlinked philosophy They show how Blaga with both general themes and concepts and also with particular examples combines much of the concerns and methods of Analytic and Continental philosophy and how his historical perspective applied especially to modern times long before anyone spoke of postmodernism and thus as in his lifetime

Thomas Rimer, 2011-10-31 Research outside Japan on the history and significance of the Japanese visual arts since the beginning of the Meiji period 1868 has been with the exception of writings on modern and contemporary woodblock prints a relatively unexplored area of inquiry In recent years however the subject has begun to attract wide interest As is evident from this volume this period of roughly a century and a half produced an outpouring of art created in a bewildering number of genres and spanning a wide range of aims and accomplishments Since Meiji is the first sustained effort in English to discuss in any depth a time when Japan eager to join in the larger cultural developments in Europe and the U S went through a visual revolution Indeed this study of the visual arts of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries suggests a fresh history of modern Japanese culture one that until now has not been widely visible or thoroughly analyzed outside that country In this extensive collection which includes some 190 black and white and color reproductions scholars from Japan Europe Australia and America explore an impressive array of subjects painting sculpture prints fashion design crafts and gardens The works discussed range from early Meiji attempts to create art that referenced Western styles to postwar and contemporary avant garde experiments There are in addition substantive investigations of the cultural and intellectual background that helped stimulate the creation of new and shifting art forms including essays on the invention of a modern artistic vocabulary in the Japanese language and the history of art criticism in Japan as well as an extensive account of the career and significance of perhaps the best known Japanese figure concerned with the visual arts of his period Okakura Tenshin 1862 1913 whose Book of Tea is still widely read today Taken together the essays in this volume allow readers to connect ideas and images thus bringing to light larger trends in the Japanese visual arts that have made possible the vitality range and striking achievements created during this turbulent and lively period Contributors Stephen Addiss Chiaki Ajioka John Clark Ellen Conant Mikiko Hirayama Michael Marra Jonathan Reynolds J Thomas Rimer Audrey Yoshiko Seo Eric C Shiner Lawrence
