Evagrius Ponticus Rather than presenting mysticism as a subtle web of psychological or theological abstractions Harless s case study approach brings things down to earth restoring mystics to their historical context

Prophecy and the Battle for Spiritual Authority, 1360-1400 Frances Courtney Kneupper,2025-07-02 The end of the fourteenth century was a time of upheaval and contested authority among the traditional institutions of medieval Europe In response to these conditions a number of people began to claim their own authority as prophets speaking the word of God They came from outside of the clerical elite and were mostly women and reformers This book examines the battle over authority which ensued Prophetic women and other non elites successfully used prophecy to exert influence and to enter the corridors of power while educated male clerics insinuated that prophecy was the product of demonic influence and therefore a hazard to the public Surprisingly a third faction also emerged an international network of clerical men who wrote in support of female prophecy This volume traces the arguments made by these three groups the clashes that erupted and the long term impacts of this battle on ideas of spiritual authority

Of Martyrs, Monks, and Mystics Charles R. Ringma,Irene Alexander,2015-10-15 Everywhere there are voices calling for a new Reformation marked by a return to the older sources of Christian wisdom and for drinking anew the inspiration of the Desert Fathers and Mothers the church fathers those from the monastic tradition and the medieval Christian mystics This anthology of original sources in contemporary English structured in a meditational mode could well be the rich resource you are looking for in hearing the ancient Christian wisdom Here are the deep wells of theological and spiritual insight that could guide you in walking a renewed path of faith in our precarious world These voices from the past may well help you in living against the tide of late modernity with its rationality and utilitarianism that cannot sustain a well lived and well loved life This book could sustain the hope for a renewed world through life lived in the presence of the healing and empowering God

The Letters of an Unexpected Mystic Robert D. Flanagan,2022-07-20 The apostle Peter is a pillar of the church whose writing has been overlooked until recently when scholarship remedied this gap significantly elevating Peter s letters However one critical area has been omitted Within the Petrine writing is a robust empowered and beautiful mystical theology which makes Peter an unexpected but vital Christian mystic In exploring his love of artwork German theologian and priest Romano Guardini developed the Threefold Seeing which has been brought to light by Yvonne Dohna Schlobitten of the Pontificate Gregorian University His unique method of viewing the artist artwork and observer develops a way of encountering the world and word Instead of looking at the world or the biblical text through separate vantage points the Threefold Seeing integrates all disciplines under greater view of God the artist of all creation The Letters of an Unexpected Mystic employs Guardini s Threefold Seeing to encounter the mystic Peter and the Petrine mystical theology The result is a book that provides its readers with a means to become the Christian Karl Rahner wrote about in 1971 The devout Christian of the future will either be a mystic one who has experienced something or he will cease to be anything at all

African Women's Theologies, Spirituality, and Healing Oduyoye, Mercy Amba,2019 African women come from a long tradition as practitioners of healing Drawing on this tradition and on her own pastoral and theological work Mercy Amba Oduyoye a distinguished Methodist theologian from Ghana discusses the spirituality that undergirds Christian healing practices in Africa with a special focus on diseases that predominantly affect women In the Midst of Much-Doing

Charles R. Ringma,2023-05-31 How are we to sustain activism and compassion amidst the never ending crises of the twenty first century While the concern for social justice is deeply biblical cynicism burnout and despair are all too common side effects when action is divorced from contemplation To effectively serve as the hands and feet of Jesus the church must attend to the revitalization of its inner life through the spiritual practices which feed support and sustain the work of the kingdom Rather than the fragmentation and dualism that have led denominations to choose between prayer and service evangelization and justice the church must integrate heart mind and body in order to fulfil its calling to transform the world from within Drawing from Scripture and a wide range of Christian traditions from the monastic to the evangelical this book inspires its readers to integrate spiritual renewal and prophetic witness for the glory of God and the good of his creation Longing and Letting Go

Holly Hillgardner,2017 Can we love God and others without our desires eclipsing the very beauty integrity and diversity toward which we are drawn that is can we love without trying to possess Spanning centuries continents and religious traditions Longing and Letting Go looks to Christian writer Hadewijch and Hindu songstress Mirabai to explore their inextricable practices of longing and letting go and more particularly the interreligious possibilities of passionate non attachment for an interconnected pluralistic world Women and Gender in Medieval Europe Margaret Schaus,2006

Publisher description Learning in a Musical Key Lisa M. Hess,2011-09-15 Learning in a Musical Key examines the multidimensional problem of the relationship between music and theological education Lisa Hess argues that in a delightful and baffling way musical learning has the potential to significantly alter and inform our conception of the nature and process of theological learning In exploring this exciting intersection of musical learning and theological training Hess asks two probing questions First What does learning from music in a performative mode require Classical modes of theological education often founder on a dichotomy between theologically musical and educational discourses It is extremely difficult for many to see how the perceivedly nonmusical learn from music Is musicality a universally human potential In exploring this question Hess turns to the music learning theory of Edwin Gordon which explores music s unique mode of teaching learning its primarily aural oral mode This challenge leads to the study s second question How does a theologian in the disciplinary sense integrate a performative mode into critical discourse Tracking the critical movements of this problem Hess provides an inherited transformational logic as a feasible path for integrating a performative mode into multidimensional learning This approach emerges as a distinctly relational embodied multidimensional and non correlational performative mode theology that breaks new ground in the contemporary theological landscape As an implicitly trinitarian method rooted in the relationality of God this non correlational method offers a practical theological contribution to the discipline of Christian
