Moe's Café Mark H. Larson, Robert S. Boone, 2006-10 While driving with your friends or family someplace far from home your radiator starts steaming You manage to find a gas station in a small town where they can fix your car but it's going to take a few hours You ask the mechanic if there's any place to get something to eat and he points across the road to Moe's Café a real dump You don't have much choice so you head inside and take a seat at the first booth on the left So begins Moe's Café one of 48 innovative and intriguing prompts for student writing These classroom tested prompts put students in a place or in front of a character and ask them to describe what they see The thinking writing and scribbling they do for the prompts inspires them to create their own stories and poems After writing 90 word mini stories students read a short story or watch a film scene to help them expand on their own creative works A section of longer readings models writing strategies The lessons and activities reinforce and develop skills defined by the National Council of Teachers of English as appropriate for students in grades 6-12 Good Year Engaging Readers Dana A. Robertson, Evelyn Ford-Connors, Susan

Dougherty, 2017-03-17 An important goal of teachers is to get all students especially those in the upper elementary and middle grades who struggle with academic work engaged in reading This book examines current research on instructional principles and actions related to engaged reading It shows how teachers can translate this research into evidence based actions that promote productive instructional contexts and focus students purposeful use of literacy in acquiring knowledge The authors integrate descriptions of principles and actions with concrete examples of classroom instruction and thematic teaching across disciplinary contexts and demonstrate how teachers might mediate students reading of complex texts The book provides readers with a vivid picture of the complexities of teaching reading in the upper elementary and middle grades In particular the book blends individual principles and practices into a holistic approach to creating productive and engaged learning environments for all upper elementary and middle grade learners Units of Study for Teaching Writing Lucy

Calkins, 2006 This series of books is designed to help upper elementary teachers teach a rigorous yearlong writing curriculum Closer Reading, Grades 3-6 Nancy Boyles, 2014-02-19 Close Reading Not in a very long while has a term been freighted with so much responsibility to pull every student out of a reading tailspin and into a great future of college and career readiness Finally here's a book that tunes out all of the hubbub and gets down to the business of showing how exactly to get close reading right What makes Closer Reading such a have to have resource Nancy Boyles knows full well that we'll never realize the promise of close reading unless we figure out where it fits in with existing literacy practices So she magnifies all the planning that goes into powerful close reading lessons while providing a wide angle lens to answer our biggest questions top among them how close reading relates to text complexity and strategic reading comprehension Chapter by chapter Nancy delivers astoundingly practical ideas on how to import close reading into daily planning including how to Connect close reading with other instructional practices whole class read alouds guided reading conferring Select rich texts and plan for initial close reading lessons Deliver initial and follow up close reading lessons Engage students in peer practice after close reading Coordinate comprehension strategies and close reading Use close reading to deepen students independent reading Close closer closest Yes if we want our students to intimately understand a text s ideas we ll need to make some shifts in our instruction Fortunately we now have Closer Reading to lean on as we go into higher gear A former classroom teacher and professor of reading Nancy Boyles is a literacy consultant who provides workshops model lessons and curriculum support to districts and organizations nationally regionally and locally Over the course of her career she has received numerous awards including New England Reading Association s Outstanding Literacy Leader Award and Connecticut Reading Association s Celebrate Literacy Award for exemplary service Closer Reading Grades 3 6 will become a treasured friend and guide as you will value every tip model lesson and complex book recommendation It is a must have book for your professional library and for professional learning communities LAURA ROBB Author of Unlocking Complex Texts
