Conroy, 2014-02-18 Food and Everyday Life provides a qualitative interpretive and interdisciplinary examination of food and food practices and their meanings in the modern world Edited by Thomas M Conroy the book offers a number of complementary approaches and topics around the parameters of the ordinary everyday perspective on food These studies highlight aspects of food production distribution and consumption as well as the discourse on food Chapters discuss examples ranging from the cultural meanings of food as represented on television to the practices of food budgeting to the cultural politics of such practices as sustainable brewing and developing new forms of urban agriculture A number of the studies focus on the relationships between food eating practices and the body Each chapter examines a particular and in many instances highly unique food practice and each includes some key details of that practice Taken together the chapters show us how the everyday practices of food are both familiar and yet at the same time ripe for further discovery The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books, 2002 Word of Mouth Susanne M. Skubal, 2013-12-16 An examination of the importance of oral experience as reflected in literature Word of Mouth extends psychoanalytic theory as forwarded by Freud Karl Abraham Melanie Klein and Julia Kristeva The meaning of oral experience is explored with reference to several texts looking at the oral bond between mother and child in Proust and questions of disordered eating raised by aggressive orality found in Conrad's Heart of Darkness Throughout the author draws forth the myriad expressions relating the desires and dramas of the mouth its pervasive pleasures and its dreads Food, Feminisms, Rhetorics Melissa A. Goldthwaite, 2017-06-19 Inspired by the need for interpretations and critiques of the varied messages surrounding what and how we eat Food Feminisms Rhetorics collects eighteen essays that demonstrate the importance of food and food related practices as sites of scholarly study particularly from feminist rhetorical perspectives Contributors analyze messages about food and bodies from what a person watches and reads to where that person shops taken from sources mundane and literary personal and cultural This collection begins with analyses of the historical cultural and political implications of cookbooks and recipes explores definitions of feminist food writing and ends with a focus on bodies and cultures both self representations and representations of others for particular rhetorical purposes The genres objects and practices contributors study are varied from cookbooks to genre fiction from blogs to food systems from product packaging to paintings but the overall message is the same food and its associated practices are worthy of scholarly attention
