Contemporary American Cinema Linda Williams, Michael Hammond, 2006-05-16 One of the rare collections I would recommend for use in undergraduate teaching the chapters are lucid without being oversimplified and the contributors are adept at analyzing the key industrial technological and ideological features of contemporary U S cinema Diane Negra University of East Anglia UK Contemporary American Cinema offers a fresh and sometimes revisionist look at developments in the American film industry from the 1960s to the present Readers will find it lively and provocative Chuck Maland University of Tennessee USA Contemporary American Cinema is the book on the subject that undergraduate classes have been waiting for Comprehensive detailed and intelligently organized and written in accessible and compelling prose Contemporary American Cinema will be embraced by instructors and students alike Charlie Keil Director Cinema Studies Program University of Toronto Canada Contemporary American Cinema usefully gathers together a range of materials that provide a valuable resource for students and scholars It is also a pleasure to read Hilary Radner University of Otago New Zealand Contemporary American Cinema deepens our knowledge of American cinema since the 1960s This is an important collection that will be widely used in university classrooms Lee Grieveson University College London UK Contemporary American Cinema is a clear sighted and tremendously readable anthology mapping the terrain of post sixties US cinema with breadth and critical verve Paul Grainge University of Nottingham UK This collection of freshly written essays by leading specialists in the field will most likely be one of the most important works of reference for students and film scholars for years to come Liv Hausken University of Oslo Norway Contemporary American Cinema is the first comprehensive introduction to American cinema since 1960 The book is unique in its treatment of both Hollywood alternative and non mainstream cinema Critical essays from leading film scholars are supplemented by boxed profiles of key directors producers and actors key films and key genres and statistics from the cinema industry Illustrated in colour and black and white with film stills posters and production images the book has two tables of contents allowing students to use the book chronologically decade by decade or thematically by subject Designed especially for courses in cinema studies and film studies cultural studies and American studies Contemporary American Cinema features a glossary of key terms fully referenced resources and suggestions for further reading questions for class discussion and a comprehensive filmography Individual chapters include The decline of the studio system The rise of American new wave cinema The history of the blockbuster The parallel histories of independent and underground film Black cinema from blaxploitation to the 1990s Changing audiences The effects of new technology Comprehensive overview of US documentary from 1960 to the present Contributors include Stephen Prince Steve Neale Susan Jeffords Yvonne Tasker Barbara Klinger Jim Hillier Peter Kramer Mark Shiel Sheldon Hall Eithne Quinn Michele Aaron Jonathan Munby Contemporary European Cinema Betty Kaklamanidou, Ana Corbalán, 2018-12-07 This book offers a range of accounts of the state of European Cinema in a specific sociopolitical era that of the global economic crisis that began in 2008 and the more recent refugee and humanitarian crisis With the recession having become a popular theme of economic demographic and sociological research in recent years this volume examines representations of the crisis and its attendant market instability and mistrust of neoliberal political systems in film It thus sheds light on the mediation reimagination and reformulation of recent history in the depiction of personal cultural and political memories and raises new questions about crisis narratives in European film asking whether the theoretical notion of national cinema is less or more powerful during moments of sociopolitical turbulence and investigating the kinds of cultural representations and themes that characterize the narratives of European documentary and fictional films from both small and large national markets Contemporary Romanian Cinema Dominique Nasta, 2013-11-12 Over the last decade audiences worldwide have become familiar with highly acclaimed films from the Romanian New Wave such as 4 Months 3 Weeks and 2 Days 2007 The Death of Mr Lazarescu 2005 and 12 08 East of Bucharest 2006 However the hundred or so years of Romanian cinema leading to these accomplishments have been largely overlooked This book is the first to provide in depth analyses of essential works ranging from the silent period to contemporary productions In addition to relevant information on historical and cultural factors influencing contemporary Romanian cinema this volume covers the careers of daring filmmakers who approached various genres despite fifty years of Communist censorship An important chapter is dedicated to Lucian Pintilie whose seminal work Reconstruction 1969 strongly inspired Romania s 21st century innovative output The book s second half closely examines both the minimalist trend Cristian Mungiu Cristi Puiu Corneliu

Porumboiu Radu Muntean and the younger but no less inspired directors who have chosen to go beyond the 1989 revolution paradigm by dealing with the complexities of contemporary Romania The Role of the Romanies Nicholas Saul, Susan Tebbutt, 2005-01-01 Since the arrival of the Gypsies or Romanies in Europe at the beginning of the eleventh century Europeans have simultaneously feared and romanticized them That ambiguity has contributed to centuries of confusion over the origins culture and identity of the Romanies a confusion that too often has resulted in marginalization persecution and scapegoating The Role of the Romanies brings together international experts on Romany culture from the fields of history sociology linguistics and anthropology to address the many questions and problems raised by the vexed relationship between Romany and European cultures The book's first section considers the genesis development and scope of the field of Romany studies while the second part expands from there to consider constructions of Romany culture and identity Part three focuses on twentieth century literary representations of Romany life while the final part considers how the role of the Romanies will ultimately be remembered and recorded Together the essays provide an absorbing portrait of a frequently misunderstood people Border Visions Jakub Kazecki, Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Cynthia J. Miller, 2013-06-13 Over the last several decades the boundaries of languages and national and ethnic identities have been shifting altering the notion of borders around the world Borderland areas such as East and West Europe the US Mexican frontera and the Middle East serve as places of cultural transfer and exchange as well as arenas of violent conflict and segregation As communities around the world merge across national borders new multi ethnic and multicultural countries have become ever more common Border Visions Identity and Diaspora in Film offers an overview of global cinema that addresses borders as spaces of hybridity and change In this collection of essays contributors examine how cinema portrays conceptions of borderlands informed by knowledge politics art memory and lived experience and how these constructions contribute to a changing global community These essays analyze a variety of international feature films and documentaries that focus on the lives cultures and politics of borderlands The essays discuss the ways in which conflicts and their resolutions occur in borderlands and how they are portrayed on film The volume pays special attention to contemporary Europe where the topic of shifting border identities is one of the main driving forces in the processes of European unification Among the filmmakers whose work is discussed in this volume are Fatih Akin Montxo Armend riz Cary Fukunaga Christoph Hochh usler Holger Jancke Emir Kusturica Laila Pakalnina Alex Rivera Larissa Shepitko Andrea Staka Elia Suleiman and Istv n Szab A significant contribution to the dialogue on global cinema Border Visions will be of interest to students and scholars of film but also to scholars in border studies gender studies sociology and political science Post-Yugoslav Constellations Vlad Beronja, Stijn Vervaet, 2016-01-15 Memory in the Balkans has often been described as binding authoritative and non negotiable functioning as a banner of war This book challenges such a one dimensional representation and offers a more nuanced analysis that accommodates frequently ignored instances of transnational solidarity dialogue communal mourning and working through a difficult past Exploring a broad range of memorial practices the book focuses on the ways in which cultural memory is mediated performed and critically reworked by literature and the arts in the former Yugoslavia Against the methodological nationalism of works that study Serbian Croatian or Bosniak culture as self contained this book examines post Yugoslav literature film visual culture and politicized art practices from a supranational angle Not solely focusing on traumatic memories but also exploring how post Yugoslav cultural practices mobilize memory for a politics of hope this volume moves beyond the trauma paradigm that still dominates memory studies In its scope and approach the book shows the relevance of the cultural memory of Eastern European citizens and the contribution they can offer to the building of Europe s shared cultural memory and transnational identity

Transnational French Studies Charles Forsdick, Claire Launchbury, 2023-10-01 The contributors to Transnational French Studies situate this disciplinary subfield of Modern Languages in actively transnational frameworks The key objective of the volume is to define the core set of skills and methodologies that constitute the study of French culture as a transnational transcultural and translingual phenomenon Written by leading scholars within the field chapters demonstrate the type of inquiry that can be pursued into the transnational realities both material and non material that are integral to what is referred to as French culture The book considers the transnational dimensions of being human in the world by focussing on four key practices which constitute the object of study for students of French language and multilingualism the construction of transcultural places and the corresponding sense of space the experience of time and transnational subjectivities The underlying premise of the volume is that the transnational is present and has long been present throughout what we define as French history and culture Chapters address instances and phenomena associated with the transnational from prehistory to the present opening up the geopolitical map of French studies beyond France and including sites where communities identified as French have formed
